WHISKEY REBELS PANIC STRICKEN DESTROY BREWS

"Prohibition Expeditionary Force" Has No Trouble.

WHOLE THING FARCE

Entire Community Destroys Evidence Of Practice.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 24.—Major A. V. Dalrymple's "prohibition expeditionary force," armed to the teeth to quell the "great Iron county booze insurrection" arrived here early today and prepared to go "over the top" into the Iron river district which started the trouble.

But there is every indication that their "drive" into the district is going to be as devoid of excitement as an old ladies sewing bee at a church social. Instead of being met by volleys of shots from indignant miners battling for their "personal liberty," the chances are about 100 to 1 that they will be greeted by "kamerad," wherever they put in an appearance.

For the outraged citizens of Iron county don't want to fight for their 2.75 per cent or better. After the morning paper stories of the "armed invasion" began filtering in, they became so panic stricken that they even threw up their hands whenever an automobile approached, in the belief that it contained parties of the dreaded "revolvers."

STRANGE SOUNDS.
Early today the county resounded with a strange rumbling sound. It was made by the rolling of many barrels over the hills, caused by the desperate efforts of the citizenry to hide its home made wine, raisin mash and other liquor where the dry agents could not find it, or, if they do find it, where they cannot connect the owners as having it in their possession. Some of the more panic stricken even hammered in the bung-holes of the barrels, allowing their brew to saturate various large tracts of the county.

Just after his arrival Major Dalrymple said he had been advised that a number of the men he is seeking have disappeared, including state Attorney McDonough, who is charged with other officials with defying the federal agent. He announced that he would obtain warrants from the United States commissioner here whose name appropriately is Hootch, charging conspiracy against McDonough, five deputies and leading police officials of Iron River.

The "P. E. F." composed of 25 men, will proceed on its invasion of Iron county.

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE OF CLUBS IN OHIO EFFECTED TUESDAY

Columbus, O., Feb. 24.—Organization of the Lincoln-McKinley-Roosevelt league of Republican clubs of Ohio was brought about by means of the state-wide Republican rally here. Major Chas. W. Montgomery, of Newark, was elected permanent president of the new organization with which 208 clubs have affiliated. Lincoln's birthday was selected as the date for holding the annual convention of the recognized league.

D. C. Bower, Dayton; J. C. Logan, Columbus; S. B. McCracken, Lancaster; Fred Wessman, Cincinnati and P. W. White, Cleveland, were appointed members of the executive committee of the league on which the president also serves. The president will select a secretary for the organization.

NEW HIGH RECORD SET FOR IMPORTS DURING JANUARY

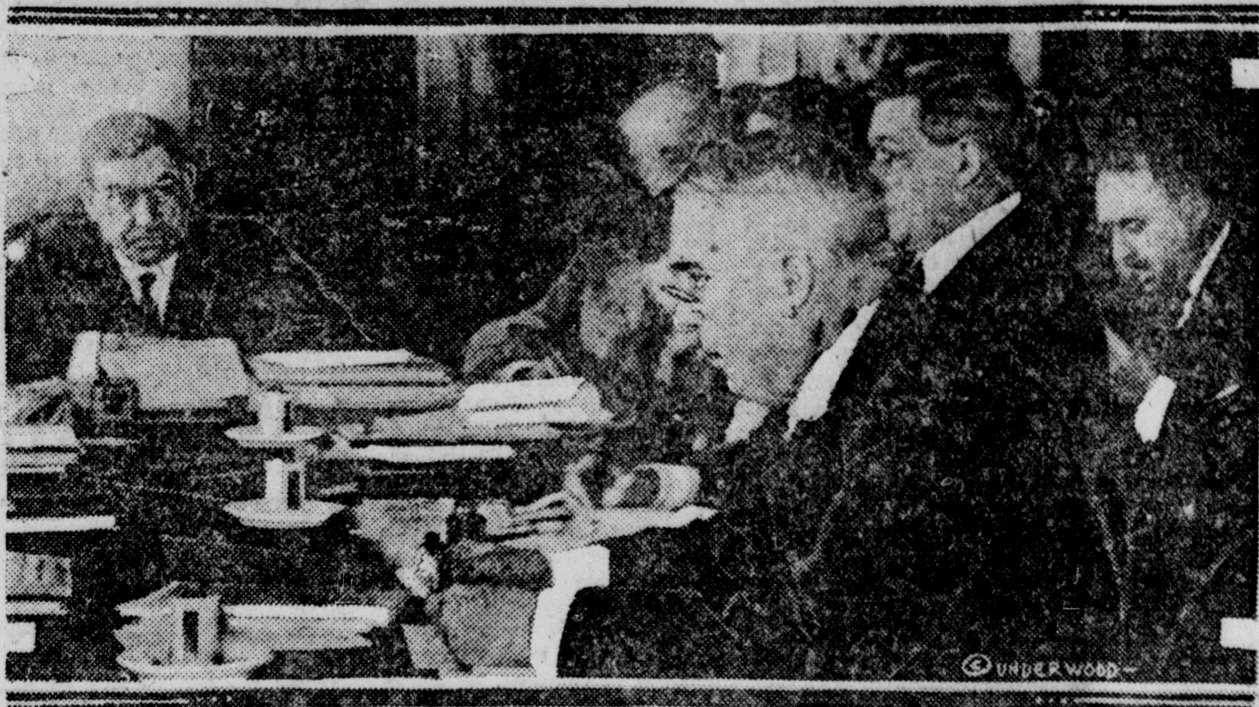

Washington, Feb. 24.—A new high record for imports was set in American foreign trade for January, Secretary of Commerce Alexander announced today. Imports for January jumped to $474,000,000 from $381,000,000 in December.

For the seven months ended with January imports were valued at $2,768,000,000 as compared with $1,698,000,000 for the similar period last year. Exports for January were $731,000,000 as against $682,000,000 in December.

PRESIDENT DRAFTS REPLY TO RAILROAD REPRESENTATIVES ON WAGE DEMANDS

Washington, Feb. 24.—President Wilson has drafted a reply to the request of the representatives of the railroad workers that he appoint at once a tribunal of employers and employees to adjust wage demands. It was announced at the White House today. The letter will be transmitted to the railroad conference, now in session during the day. It is known that the president will state that he cannot appoint such a commission until he has acted upon the Cummins-Esch bill which is now before him and which provides for a labor adjustment board.

Republican Organization Recruiting Members In County.

The rather bad weather did not dampen the ardor of some 60 or 70 Greene County Republicans who attended the G. O. P. convention at Columbus Monday in a body.

Of the delegates who attended the convention there were several women. Mrs. A. E. Faulkner and Mrs. Harry D. Smith of this city and Mrs. Jesse Taylor and Mrs. Clara Bargdill of Jamestown being present. Enthusiasm imbued by the women at the Republican rally, it is believed, may result in the formation of a Woman's Republican Club.

Chairman J. Kenneth Williamson of the Greene County Republican Executive Committee stated Tuesday if such an organization of women was formed, that it would likely be an auxiliary of the local Greene County Republican Club and would work with that organization.

The club is now establishing headquarters in the Schmidt building, over the Katz clothing store, and they will be opened shortly. At present the headquarters will be open only in the evenings, but later on it is the intention to have the headquarters open all day long.

The Republican Club, formed several weeks ago with Dr. H. C. Messenger, chairman, is planning a membership campaign, which will likely start this week, and it is urging all Greene County Republicans to become affiliated with the organization which will be a big factor in this county in the 1920 Presidential race.

J. Perry Shumaker is membership chairman and will be in direct charge of the campaign for more members.

ONLY ONE BID IS RECEIVED FOR BONDS OF CITY TUESDAY

Only one bid for the purchase of the $325,000 worth of bonds offered by Xenia City for the purchase of the Xenia Water Works, was opened at the special commission meeting held for that purpose at 12 o'clock Tuesday.

Because of the fact that all of the bids are not yet in, the commission took no action on the one bid received, which was from Seasonood & Myers of Cincinnati. Other bids, it is thought would be received by mail through the day.

MEXICAN ORDER AVIATORS RELEASED

Washington, Feb. 24.—The Mexican government has ordered the release of the American army aviators, C. L. Usher and M. L. Wolf held with their planes below the border. The state department was advised today. The order said the aviators with their planes would be returned to the United States.

U. S. ASSISTANCE WANTED BY FRANCE

Paris, Feb. 24.—President Deschanel, replying today to President Wilson's cablegram of congratulations said: "France counts with unbreakable confidence upon the assistance of the American government in people in obtaining justice and reparation, following the immense sacrifices and heavy losses in the war."

JOHNSON TAKES UP CUDGEL WITH DAKOTA FIGHTERS

Will Mix in the Primary Fight of That State.

OPPOSED TO TREATY

Will Campaign State For His Principles.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, is headed for North Dakota today, bent on mixing in the primary fight in that state by placing the peace treaty and the league of nations squarely before its voters.

Johnson, a candidate for the Republican nomination for President, is among the senators opposed unalterably to ratification and the commitment of the American people to the league who believes the treaty cannot be kept out of the campaign. He is confident a referendum on the treaty, such as President Wilson advocated in his Jackson day dinner message, will result in the rejection by the people of the whole league scheme. The outcome of the North Dakota primary, which takes place March 16—the second of the presidential primaries, New Hampshire being the first—will be watched closely by political sharps of both parties.

Johnson, who is due in Chicago today, is scheduled to spend tomorrow, Thursday, Friday and Saturday in campaigning up and down North Dakota. He is then to invade South Dakota. He may visit Minnesota. The length of his stay in the northwest will depend upon how his strength holds out, as he has only recently recovered from an attack of grip.

In the meanwhile the treaty situation will drag along in the senate. Senator Lodge, Republican leader, does not plan to revive the question until Thursday which may force action on the second reservation, involving article X, or may decide to defer action until the less disputed reservations are gotten out of the way.

CHAOS OF MIDDLE AGES FOR EUROPE IF BOLSHEVISM WINS

London, Feb. 24.—If Germany reaches the condition Austria is now in it will plunge Europe into chaos and bolshevism similar to the middle ages," warned Dr. Von Gwinner, head of the Deutsche bank of Berlin, in an interview telegraphed by the Berlin correspondent of the Evening Standard today.

Dr. Von Gwinner said that the per capita of worthless currency afloat in Germany today is $200.

He added: "Unless the world buries its hates and builds bridges of sympathy and mercy the white race will march to ruin. We hope England will release the French death grip upon Germany and then European salvation can begin. German credit has collapsed, industry is crippled and the people are hungry."

SENDS RECOMMENDATION.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The president today sent to the senate the nomination of William S. Phillips, of Massachusetts, to be minister to the Netherlands. Mr. Phillips is now assistant secretary of state.

CLAIRVOYANT IS UNDER ARREST

Boston, Feb. 24.—Charged with having fleeced many women out of considerable sums of money, Thomas O. Mosette, self styled "master clairvoyant" is under arrest at Akron, Ohio, according to word received by the Boston police today. Mosette's arrest followed a chase lasting five years. As "Sir Thomas Mosette" he was known and sought by the police of many of the leading cities of the world.

HOOVER BREAKS WITH WILSON ON TREATY; PARTY NOW FACES SPLIT RAILROAD BILL PASSES SENATE DESPITE LABOR; AWAITS WILSON'S MOVE

President Now Controls Immediate Future of Roads—Attitude is Being Kept Secret Although Signature Expected.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The immediate future of the railroads today rests in the hands of President Wilson. The compromise Cummins-Esch bill passed by congress over the very bitter opposition of labor, has been laid before the president for his approval or rejection. Upon his action hinges the question of whether the railroads will return to their private owners on March 1, or whether the demands of the organized railroad workers shall be granted and the bill vetoed with consequent delay in the return of the railroads, for it is generally conceded that if the president vetoes the bill he

PEACE OFFER IS RECEIVED FROM SOVIET CHIEFS

Paris, Feb. 24.—The supreme council (council of premiers) now in session in London has received a formal peace offer from the Russian soviet government at Moscow, the Matin reported today. According to this newspaper Premier Nitti of Italy is urging acceptance of the Russian terms, while Premier Lloyd George is disposed to make concessions that would conform to the views of Premier Millerand, who is violently opposed to a peace with Russia.

"Peritax," the political editor of the Echo De Paris, whose revelations of "inside information" have recently caused an international sensation, declares that "an accord or Russia is about to be reached."

According to the Journal the premiers have decided to send no more arms, ammunition or money to the anti-Bolshevik forces and have advised Poland not to attack Russia.

The London correspondent of the Journal telegraphs that the premiers have reappraised their decision to open commercial relations with Russia through the co-operative societies. Practically all of the special stories from Paris political writers now in London agree that, while there may be no formal recognition of the soviet government at the present moment, the premiers are working towards closer relationship with Russia.

SAYS AMERICAN SCHOOL SYSTEM IS "PRUSSIANISM"

Cleveland, O., Feb. 24.—American school system was denounced as "Prussianism" in a speech before the national education association here last night by Charles E. Stillman, Wilmette, Ill., president of the American Federation of Teachers. He charged that the present system stifles the individuality of teachers and places all the power in a few men.

As a remedy Mr. Stillman advocated the election of teachers, nominated by teachers, to places of control equivalent to board of education positions.

Dr. George D. Strayer, Columbia university, met this suggestion by a statement that control must be invested in board of education elected by the people, which must be court of last appeals for teachers. Dr. Harlan Updgraff, university of Pennsylvania, urged co-operation between teachers and superintendents.

At the close of a stormy debate between Dr. George D. Strayer, Columbia university and Dean William P. Burris, Cincinnati university, the national commission on emergency in education, by a vote of 63 to 2, voiced its approval of the Smith-Tower bill which provides for a secretary of education on the president's cabinet and $100,000,000 for educational extension work.

STOP PROPOSAL FOR GOVERNMENT OPERATION OF SHIPS

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24.—After eliminating a call for government operation of the merchant marine, the senate today after more than an hour's debate, adopted the Halpern assembly resolution memorializing President Wilson to defer the proposed sale of the German merchant fleet seized by the United States during the world war to the International Merchant Marine or any other corporation whose ships do not fly the American flag. The vote was 30 to 6.

Hoover Strongly Opposes the Campaign Issue.

WANTS COMPROMISE

Belief Expressed That Hat Is In the Ring at Last.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Herbert Hoover has placed himself squarely at odds with President Wilson on the treaty question and by so doing threatens the Democratic convention at San Francisco next June with one of the hottest fights on record if not an actual split.

This is the interpretation put upon Hoover's Johns Hopkins speech by many politicians here who consider his hat as already as good as in the ring, thrown in from the Democratic side for him.

Having strongly opposed carrying the treaty into the coming elections on the ground that it would "obscure our pressing domestic issues," Hoover's remarks are today set up here in deadly parallel with the president's Jackson day rally message in which he said that unless the pact could be ratified without changes which alter its meaning, "the clear and single way out of it is to submit it to the voters of the nation."

Hoover has declared that he is for "mild reservationists" holding that compromise as suggested by the while he will not be on the side of any party which opposes the league, he does not think it worth much if it cannot prove its value even under the conditions which the "mild reservationists" would impose.

Simultaneously with those developments which political sharps here insist must end for all time the claims that Hoover is President Wilson's own pick for the presidency, comes word that both Democrats and Republicans agree that nothing can now keep the treaty out of the campaign.

From the south and certain other parts of the country, news has reached Washington that Hoover's name is practically certain to come before the San Francisco convention.

Should Hoover become a candidate for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket, political "regulars" say nothing could prevent Hooverian Democracy and the Democracy of President Wilson from immediately locking horns.

With the treaty of Versailles as the paramount issue in the campaign, forecasters believe the Wilson Democrats would insist upon a candidate representing the president's views and who would be pledged to the ratification of the treaty practically as it came from Paris.

The Hooverites would call for a compromise candidate, one favoring ratification based upon "mild reservations" making domestic questions the principal issue.

COURT GIVES ITS SANCTION TO THE SALE INJUNCTION

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 24.—Just before today's session of the Newberry trial opened, a number of the 123 defendants were chuckling over what appeared to them to have been a failure of the government to "kill two friendly birds with one stone" in the refusal of the court to admit the testimony of the business manager of "Henry's Weekly" one of the bitterest critics of the administration at Washington. The business manager was brought from New York to testify regarding 149 subscriptions said to have been taken out for the weekly by the Newberry campaign leaders, but after a lengthy argument this was ruled as inadmissible.

Several more of the alleged $10 bill witnesses, who have declared they received bank notes of that denomination for their campaign work for the Michigan senator, were expected to testify today.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Fearing renewed clashes between prohibition enforcement and local municipal officers, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer today dispatched messages to certain districts where minor revolts are reported pending, admonishing prohibition directors to proceed with extreme caution before making raids.

Reports to the department of justice today from Iron county, Michigan, tending to show that prohibition officers, in exceeding their authority in that locality, precipitated a clash that might have been averted, caused Commissioner Kramer to act speedily to avert similar incidents.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Federal prohibition Commissioner Kramer today vetoed the proposal of prohibitionists that patrol fleets be thrown out to stop blockade whiskey runners operating off the Atlantic coast. Kramer said such an undertaking was not feasible at this time with the funds at his disposal.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Herbert Hoover has placed himself squarely at odds with President Wilson on the treaty question and by so doing threatens the Democratic convention at San Francisco next June with one of the hottest fights on record if not an actual split.
This is the interpretation put upon Hoover's Johns Hopkins speech by many politicians here who consider his hat as already as good as in the ring, thrown in from the Democratic side for him.
Having strongly opposed carrying the treaty into the coming elections on the ground that it would "obscure our pressing domestic issues," Hoover's remarks are today set up here in deadly parallel with the president's Jackson day rally message in which he said that unless the pact could be ratified without changes which alter its meaning, "the clear and single way out of it is to submit it to the voters of the nation."
Hoover has declared that he is for "mild reservationists" holding that compromise as suggested by the while he will not be on the side of any party which opposes the league, he does not think it worth much if it cannot prove its value even under the conditions which the "mild reservationists" would impose.
Simultaneously with those developments which political sharps here insist must end for all time the claims that Hoover is President Wilson's own pick for the presidency, comes word that both Democrats and Republicans agree that nothing can now keep the treaty out of the campaign.
From the south and certain other parts of the country, news has reached Washington that Hoover's name is practically certain to come before the San Francisco convention.
Should Hoover become a candidate for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket, political "regulars" say nothing could prevent Hooverian Democracy and the Democracy of President Wilson from immediately locking horns.
With the treaty of Versailles as the paramount issue in the campaign, forecasters believe the Wilson Democrats would insist upon a candidate representing the president's views and who would be pledged to the ratification of the treaty practically as it came from Paris.
The Hooverites would call for a compromise candidate, one avowing ratification based upon "mild reservations" making domestic questions the principal issue.

COURT GIVES ITS SANCTION TO THE SALE INJUNCTION

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 24.—Just before today's session of the Newberry trial opened, a number of the 123 defendants were chuckling over what appeared to them to have been a failure of the government to "kill" two friendly birds with one stone in the refusal of the court to admit the testimony of the business manager of "Harvey's Weekly" one of the bitterest critics of the administration at Washington. The business manager was brought from New York to testify regarding 149 subscriptions said to have been taken out for the weekly by the Newberry campaign leaders, but after a lengthy argument this was ruled as inadmissible.
Several more of the alleged $10 bill witnesses, who have declared they received bank notes of that denomination for their campaign work for the Michigan senator, were expected to testify today.

FEAR RENEWAL OF CLASHES BETWEEN PROHIBITION AND MUNICIPAL OFFICERS

Washington, Feb. 24.—Fearing renewed clashes between prohibition enforcement and local municipal officers, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer today dispatched messages to certain districts where minor revolts are reported pending, admonishing prohibition directors to proceed with extreme caution before making raids. Reports to the department of justice today from Iron county, Michigan, tending to show that prohibition officers, in exceeding their authority in that locality, precipitated a clash that might have been averted, caused Commissioner Kramer to act speedily to avert similar incidents.

WILL NOT STOP WHISKEY RUNNERS

Washington, Feb. 24.—Federal prohibition Commissioner Kramer today vetoed the proposal of prohibitionists that patrol fleets be thrown out to stop blockade whiskey runners operating off the Atlantic coast. Kramer said such an undertaking was not feasible at this time with the funds at his disposal.

PURCHASE OF PARIS PAPER IN PLANS RAPPED

Paris, Feb. 24.—Joseph Caillaux's alleged connection with the sensational effort of German agents to purchase the Paris Journal for propaganda purposes during the war came up under the treason trial of the former premier was resumed today before the senate sitting as a high court of justice.

M. Caillaux denied knowledge of the negotiations although he admitted that he was acquainted with former Senator Humbert and two members of the Lenoir family who were involved in the deal. The younger Lenoir was subsequently expected by a French firing squad on the Vincennes execution field, and Senator Humbert was banished to Spain, where he is now living.

In his explanation of defence the premier gave fresh demonstration of his remarkable facility for memory, which was a notable feature of the last session of court on Friday. He readily recalled names, dates and incidents at will. The accused admitted contact with the Lenoirs but was emphatic in declaring that if the Lenoirs were carrying on pro-German negotiations he was not implicated in them.

The possibility that local politics would be dragged into the evidence attracted an enormous crowd to Luxembourg palace, where the case is in progress. The impression is gaining ground among some of the persons who have been following the trial since it opened last Tuesday that the government may not be able to convict the former premier unless startling new evidence is produced. So far the questions of the prosecution and the court have touched only upon matters that have been discussed in the French parliament and in the press.

The Washington's Birthday meeting of the Lagoda Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Springfield, was held at the home of Mrs. E. Myers, East High street, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William M. Wilson, of this city, state vice regent of the D. A. R., gave an address at the meeting. She extended the greetings of Catharine Greene Chapter, and added several remarks about the work in general. Dr. J. Bradley Markward, of the First Lutheran church, gave the address of the afternoon, and it was followed by a musical program. Delegates were selected by the chapter to attend the state and national meets of the D. A. R.

MUSIC CLUB HEARS ITALIAN PROGRAM.

The Misses Florence and Margaret

Steele were hostesses to the Xenia Woman's Music Club Monday afternoon, the February sixteenth meeting having been continued until that time owing to illness among the members. Italy, furnished the afternoon's program, and Dr. J. E. Wishart of the Xenia Seminary faculty gave an instructive talk on the music and the musicians of that land.

Mrs. W. H. McGervey took charge of the program for Mrs. Graham Bryson, who was prevented attending owing to a death in the family relationship.

The opening group of songs consisted of two compositions by Caracolo, "Flight of the Clouds," and "When I am Dead," duets sung by Mrs. Mary Meredith and Mrs. Arthur V. Merrill.

Miss Margaret Fletcher gave the next number a piano selection, Pastoral by Scarlati-Tausig, Tosti's "The Last Song" was sung by Miss Florence Steele. A special feature of the program was given by Miss Irene Parrett, violinist, who assisted Mrs. Charles Adair in giving her numbers. Miss Parrett played the intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, by Mascagni, with the piano by Mrs. Adair. Mrs. Adair also played Sarabande by Scarlati.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY DINNER PARTY IS HELD.

Touches suggestive of Washington's Birthday were used in the table decorations at the dinner which Miss Mildred Confer and Miss Mary Allen were hostesses, Monday evening at the home of Miss Confer. Centering the table was a basket filled with crimson roses, and the tapers were in the same shade. The place cards and nut baskets carried out the decorative idea. There were covers for twelve. Dinner was in three courses.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS POWERLESS TO PROTECT ROADS FROM TRUCKS

Powerless to protect the roads in the face of a law enacted by the legislature a year ago, the county commissioners are forced to remain inactive while heavy trucks plow up the highways softened as the frost leaves the ground.

Section 7477 of the General code, which gave the commissioners power to fix the weights to be hauled over the roads on tires of certain widths, and by that means furnish protection to the roads, was repealed by the legislature. In its place was enacted Section 7248, which gives such latitude in the use of tires and weights that it is virtually useless so far as protection to the roads is concerned. Trucks weighing ten and twelve tons are not restrained from the use of the roads, notwithstanding their condition.

Acting under the former law, which gave them the right to determine width of tires and weights to be hauled with them, the commissioners passed a resolution making the following provisions, which was in effect several years, and was of great aid in saving the highways of the county:

Tires less than three inches in width, weight to be hauled, including weight of vehicle and driver, 3,400 pounds. Tires three inches in width, 3,600 pounds; tires four inches in width and over, 3,800 pounds.

A fine of not less than $5 and not more than $50 was provided for violation of the law.

The newly enacted law, which renders the commissioners powerless to protect the roads while they are softened by receding frost and rain is:

No person, firm or corporation shall transport over the improved public streets, highways, bridges or culverts within this state, in a vehicle propelled by either motor or muscular power, a burden, including weight of load and vehicle, greater than the following:

In vehicles having iron or steel tires three inches or less in width, a load of 500 pounds for each inch of the total width of the tire surface on all wheels. When the tire of such vehicle exceeds three inches in width an additional load of 800 pounds shall be permitted for each inch by which the total width of the tire surface on all four wheels exceeds twelve inches.

In vehicles having tires of rubber or other similar substance a load of 800 pounds for each inch of the total width of tire surface on all wheels. The provisions of this section shall not apply to iron or steel tire horse drawn vehicles when in use upon the streets and thoroughfares of cities, or upon the streets of thoroughfares of villages, except such streets and thoroughfares therein as have been or may hereafter be improved by the state or county. County Commissioners said Tuesday that they had received numerous calls from persons living in different sections of the county within the last few days, complaining that heavy trucks were injuring the roads. The answers to all of these complaints is that the commissioners are not able to prosecute drivers of such trucks, since they are no longer violating the law.

While macadam roads with a hard tar surface, such as those built by the state do not suffer much from heavy weights, the ordinary macadam road, of which there are miles in this county, and the gravel roads, can easily be ruined by a few trips over it at this time of the year, carrying the weights now allowed by law, the commissioners say.

EASTERN STAR CHAPTER INITIATES CANDIDATES.
Cedarville Chapter, No. 418 Order of the Eastern Star, held a special meeting for degree work, followed by a banquet at the Masonic hall in Cedarville, Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clarke of Chapter No. 319 Freeport, Ohio, were present as guests. At the banquet which followed the degree work, impromptu speeches were made by Mr. and Mrs. Clarke. Miss Helen Stine, Frank Cresswell, Miss Merle McFarland, John Johnson and O. P. Elias, the worthy patron.

BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED AT SHOWER.
Miss Pauline Hurley, who will be a bride of this week, was honored guest at a parcel shower given by her aunt Mrs. John Bickford of Eleazer. Seated at the head of the dining room table, Miss Hurley unwrapped the parcels containing the variety of love letters and useful gifts. The guests each wrote a recipe for the bride on heart shaped cards. Hearts were the favors. The hostess served a dainty luncheon. Forty people enjoyed the afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Hurley to Rufus Wical will take place Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beam.

MRS. WILSON ATTENDS D. A. R. MEET
The Washington's Birthday meeting of Lagoda Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Springfield, was held at the home of Mrs. E. Myers, East High street, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William M. Wilson, of this city, state vice regent of the D. A. R., gave an address at the meeting. She extended the greetings of Catherine Greene Chapter, and added several remarks about the work in general.

Dr. J. Bradley Markward, of the First Lutheran church, gave the address of the afternoon, and it was followed by a musical program. Delegates were selected by the chapter to attend the state and national meets of the D. A. R.

MUSIC CLUB HEARS ITALIAN PROGRAM.
The Misses Florence and Margaret Steele were hostesses to the Xenia Woman's Music Club Monday afternoon, the February sixteenth meeting having been continued until that time owing to illness among the members.

Italy, furnished the afternoon's program, and Dr. J. E. Wishart of the Xenia Seminary faculty gave an instructive talk on the music and the musicians of that land.

Mrs. W. H. McGarvey took charge of the program for Mrs. Graham Bryson, who was prevented attending owing to a death in the family relationship.

The opening group of songs consisted of two compositions by Caracciolo, "Flight of the Clouds," and "When I am Dead" duets sung by Mrs. Mary Meredith and Mrs. Arthur V. Perrill.

Miss Margaret Fletcher gave the next number a piano selection, Pastoral by Scarlatti-Tausig. Tosti's, "The Last Song" was sung by Miss Florence Steele. A special feature of the program was given by Miss Irene Parrett, violinist, who assisted Mrs. Charles Adair in giving her numbers. Miss Parrett played the intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, by Mascagni, with the piano by Mrs. Adair. Mrs. Adair also played Sarabande by Scarlatti.

Mrs. Lawrence Shields, sang two numbers, Nina, by Pergolesi, and Aria from Il Bravo by Mercabante.

The program closed with a duet, "Roses Everywhere," sung by Mrs. Meredith and Mrs. Perrill, accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Shumaker. Miss Margaret Steele played the accompaniments for the vocal numbers of Miss Florence Steele and Mrs. Shields. Mrs. Meredith will entertain the Club March 15th.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS POWERLESS TO PROTECT ROADS FROM TRUCKS

Powerless to protect the roads in the face of a law enacted by the legislature a year ago, the county commissioners are forced to remain inactive while heavy trucks plow up the highways softened as the frost leaves the ground.

Section 7477 of the General code, which gave the commissioners power to fix the weights to be hauled over the roads on tires of certain widths, and by that means furnished protection to the roads, was repealed by the legislature. In its place was enacted Section 7248, which gives such latitude in the use of tires and weights that it is virtually useless so far as protection to the roads is concerned. Trucks weighing ten and twelve tons are not restrained from the use of the roads, notwithstanding their condition.

Acting under the former law, which gave them the right to determine width of tires and weights to be hauled with them, the commissioners passed a resolution making the following provisions, which was in effect several years, and was of great aid in saving the highways of the county:

Tires less than three inches in width, weight to be hauled, including weight of vehicle and driver, 3,400 pounds. Tires three inches in width, 3,600 pounds; tires four inches in width and over, 3,800 pounds.

A fine of not less than $5 and not more than $50 was provided for violation of the law.

The newly enacted law, which renders the commissioners powerless to protect the roads while they are softened by receding frost and rain is:

No person, firm or corporation shall transport over the improved public streets, highways, bridges or culverts within this state, in a vehicle propelled by either motor or muscular power, a burden, including weight of load and vehicle, greater than the following:

In vehicles having iron or steel tires three inches or less in width, a load of 500 pounds for each inch of the total width of the tire surface on all wheels. When the tire of such vehicle exceeds three inches in width an additional load of 800 pounds shall be permitted for each inch by which the total width of the tire surface on all four wheels exceeds twelve inches.

In vehicles having tires of rubber or other similar substance a load of 800 pounds for each inch of the total width of tire surface on all wheels. The provisions of this section shall not apply to iron or steel tire horse drawn vehicles when in use upon the streets and thoroughfares of cities, or upon the streets of thoroughfares of villages, except such streets and thoroughfares therein as have been or may hereafter be improved by the state or county. County Commissioners said Tuesday that they had received numerous calls from persons living in different sections of the county within the last few days, complaining that heavy trucks were injuring the roads. The answers to all of these complaints is that the commissioners are not able to prosecute drivers of such trucks, since they are no longer violating the law.

While macadam roads with a hard tar surface, such as those built by the state do not suffer much from heavy weights, the ordinary macadam road, of which there are miles in this county, and the gravel roads, can easily be ruined by a few trips over it at this time of the year, carrying the weights now allowed by law, the commissioners say.

BOXING SCOUT VISITS XENIA

Tom McBride, of Middletown, manager of Marty Reese, well-known scraper, visited matchmakers of the Xenia Athletic Club here Tuesday with a view to hooking up the Middletown boy with another good battler in this city, in case the local promoters put on another boxing show.

Reese has been going good all over the state and he is figured as being able to furnish a lively match if hooked up either with Hope Mullen or Larry Davis. An effort will be made to arrange a bout between Reese and Mullen it is thought.

It matters not what excesses have wrecked your nerves, Evans Triple Phosphates are guaranteed to stop your trembling, to restore your confidence, to drive away forgetfulness and to make your mind keen and alert to change your sluggish disposition for a vigorous, active one or money back.

If you have worked too hard, lived too rapidly or have become weak, nervous and lost ambition because of excesses, arouse yourself right now and get a large 12-oz bottle of Evans Triple Phosphate.

Take according to directions or as your physician may direct for at least 10 days and then if you don't feel stronger, better and more ambitious, get your money back. That's how speedily it acts.

All pharmacists dispense Evans Triple Phosphates in the original bottle. Sohn's Drug Store keeps it on hand all the time and says the demand is increasing every day.

FORMER GOVERNOR DIES IN FLORIDA

Newark, N. J., Feb. 24.—Franklin Murphy, former governor of New Jersey, died at Royal Poinciana hotel at Palm Beach, Fla., following an operation for abdominal trouble, said a dispatch to his son, Franklin Murphy, Jr., today.

ROAD GETS PERMISSION

Columbus, O., Feb. 24.—The state utilities commission today granted authority to the Hocking Valley railroad company to issue $3,000,000 in 6 per cent equipment notes to reimburse the government for the purchase of 500 coal cars and 20 locomotives for this road.

COURT NEWS

Although they were married less than a year ago, Eleanor Wilson in her suit for divorce from Joseph H. Wilson recites a story of neglect and cruelty in her petition for divorce, which was filed almost on the first anniversary of their wedding. She declares that she was obliged to work not only to support herself but to pay the house rent and buy food. "On occasions too numerous to mention her husband mistreated her, and once drove her out of the house in her night clothes at the point of a shot gun, and at another time threatened to kill her."

Susie Johnson alleges neglect and cruelty in her petition for divorce from Thomas Johnson. They were married September 7, 1916.

EXPECT HARDING'S APPROVAL OF LIST OF CANDIDATES

Columbus, O., Feb. 24.—Announcement of the list of candidates for delegates to the national convention, which will be approved by United States Senator Harding is expected soon from Harding headquarters here.

According to reports around local political headquarters, it is said that Senator Harding will approve two candidates other than former Attorney General E. C. Turner and Judge E. B. Kinkead, in the twelfth district who announced themselves as candidates pledged to support Senator Harding. Under a ruling of Secretary of State Smith, any Republican can run for delegate to the convention and if chosen favor any one of the presidential aspirants who filled declarations in Ohio. Senator Harding will give a personal letter of approval to the two candidates in each district and four at large.

COURT REFUSES TO ALLOW TESTIMONY OF PAPER'S MANAGER

Washington, Feb. 24.—Justice Bailey of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, today signed the temporary injunction order, sought by William Randolph Hearst, restraining the shipping board from selling the thirty passenger ships seized from Germany during the war.

Counsel for the shipping board gave no notice of intention to file an appeal, indicating that the shipping board will await action of congress before taking further steps for the sale of the ships.

ADVISES "CORN SILK"

Extracts in Treatment of Kidney and Bladder Ailments.

Allays Inflammation and Restores Normal Action

Just simple extract of green corn silk compounded with other simple, well-known drugs, seems to bring results in the treatment of Kidney and Bladder disorders that might almost be classed as miraculous. Congestion and inflammation of the kidneys and bladder cause untold distress. Pain in back and hips, pain and pressure in bladder region, frequent desire to eliminate, causing restless sleep soon wears out the patient's vitality and more serious results follow neglect.

The soothing, balmy effect of Balmwort Tablets are noticed quickly as the inflammation is allayed and the organs are toned up to act as nature intended.

Alexander T. Matya, 30 Elm street, Passaic, N. J., writes: "I have been taking Balmwort Tablets for Kidney and Bladder trouble and find they give me the most beneficial results."

Stop your suffering and nightly distress by asking your leading druggist for a tube of Balmwort.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure to mention the Gazette or Republican.

THE PEARY-COOK CONTROVERSY ABOUT THE NORTH POLE.

For several years, along after the year 1910, there raged in this country one of the bitterest controversies imaginable, as to whether Peary or Cook had discovered the North Pole. Each side had its brave advocates, some of whom would become fighting mad against their adversaries. But, in the course of two or three years, the evidence became undoubted that Cook's claims were fraudulent and his supporters had to subside.

Congress, in time, did justice to Peary. On March 3, 1911, it voted to him its special thanks and conferred upon him the rank of Rear Admiral, the promotion and the highest salary permissible dating from the actual discovery of the pole. Special gold medals were also conferred upon him by a number of societies.

Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, retired, discoverer of the North Pole, died at his home in Washington City, on February 20th, after a two years' illness of pernicious anemia, during which thirty-five blood transfusions had been of no avail. Sailors, attaches of the naval hospital, and many ex-service men gave of their life's blood, during that period in the vain effort to prolong the life of the country's foremost explorer.

On April 6, 1909, Admiral Peary, with Matt Hanson, a Philadelphia negro, who had been his bodyguard, and four Eskimos, stood on the northern axis of the earth. It was the crowning achievement of years of tireless effort, interminable hardship and eight expeditions.

Six months later, on September 6, 1909, his historic message reading, "Stars and Stripes nailed to North Pole," threaded its way to this country from Indian Harbor via Cape Ray, Newfoundland.

Four days previously Dr. Frederick A. Cook had perpetrated his notorious hoax, and when the triumphant explorer returned it was into the caldron of the most famous controversy that has ever agitated world scientific circles. Eventually the irrefutable records of Admirable Peary proved Doctor Cook an impostor.

At the age of 52 years Peary launched his eighth and final expedition in July, 1908. Colonel Roosevelt saw him off and it was to him that Captain Barlett, Admiral Peary's veteran navigator, shouted as the ship got under way, "It's the pole or bust this time, Mr. President." It was the pole.

This time the expedition comprised five detachments which pushed northward in the manner of a telescope. At the 58th parallel Captain Barlett was left in charge of the fourth detachment while Admiral Peary with a member of the crew and four Eskimos faced the north on the final and successful dash. The 135 miles were covered in five days.

For thirty hours, from April 6 to 7, the little party made observations in the vicinity of the pole, located in a vast tract of frozen sea. The weather was fine, the thermometer ranging between 12 and 33 degrees below. Several open spaces were sounded, but the 9,000 feet of wire carried by the party did not reach the bottom of that unknown northern sea.

The roll of Arctic explorers had been voluminous and illustrious. Beginning with the Vikings, it bore the names of Frobenius, Davis, Barents, Hudson, Baffin, Barrow, Scoresby, Parry, Franklin, McClintock, Kane, Hall, Hayes, Payer, Schwatka, Delong, Greely, Nordenskiöld, Abruzzi, Fiala, Wellman, Amundsen, Nansen and their compeers; all credited with high achievements.

"WHO WON THE WAR?"

It is very patent to any intelligent and well-informed person that Germany and her allies, having been beaten in the war, are now trying to arouse feelings of jealousy among the nations that opposed them. Having failed to make ill feeling between England and France, they are now, through agents—some being press men—trying to make ill feeling between America and England. All this talk about who won the war is astonishingly childish, and is treated as such by politicians and well-informed men and women in England and America. But to those who are inclined to listen to the pro-German propagandists we would like to point out how absurd it would be for any one nation to say she won the war, seeing it was the united efforts of all the nations that were concentrated against the common foe that achieved victory. We would liken the situation in Europe before the United States of America joined the Allies to three horses struggling along with a four-horse load, and after struggling bravely and determinedly for a considerable time, a fourth horse is hitched on, and the load is successfully hauled to the journey's end.

Could any one of those horses be said to have been the one to do it all? No doubt the three horses that had been trying to do the work of four had had the hardest time, and suffered more than the fourth, but only the combined efforts of the four insured success.

And so it was the combined efforts of America and the Allies that brought the war to a successful conclusion. Field Marshal French, who commanded the British army in France and Flanders for the first year and a half of the war, is credited with saying that it was not Wellington but God who won the battle of Waterloo. Would it not be appropriate for us to say it was God who won this great world war?

We always find some funny things in the news, but when we read of the beautiful young girl who sued a hotel for damages for an injury to a limb, sustained when the elevator in which she was riding fell, and how she had to prove to the jury by ocular demonstration the extent of her hurt, we suppose the judge stopped the proceedings because he wasn't invited.

Nothing helps like a little publicity now and then and we suppose that the natives of Iron County, Michigan, who have come out in open rebellion against prohibition laws that while their own activities are doomed to failure, nevertheless their great cause is furthered through their own martyrdom.

We always wait until after the state political rally before picking our candidates, but this year we fear will be an exception to the rule, as Senator Harding has expressed his desire for party victory rather than personal achievement.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The jury in the Martin murder trial returned a verdict of "not guilty" at noon today.

Mr. Clarence Frazer went to Cincinnati this morning on business.

Mr. T. H. Zell has been making some alterations in his tuxedo parlors, preparatory to adding another chair, making three in all.

Mr. Ralph Lucas, who is employed as an operator on the Pan Handle railroad, having charge of an office at Crane street, Cincinnati, is spending a couple of days on a visit to this city.

Mr. R. S. Kingsbury has returned from New York where he has been for some days buying his spring stock of clothing.

Citizens remember the meeting in the Mayor's office tonight, to hear the report of the committee appointed to consider the propriety of establishing a Board of Trade or Commercial Club for Xenia.

CHATTER

Gwendoline sighed softly, and went. "Harold!" she blubbered. "You do not love me."

The young man started violently, knitted his brow fiercely, and an excited flush enveloped his countenance.

"Gwendoline," he gasped, as he recovered from the shock. "Gwendoline," line!" he repeated. "You astound me! When a man deliberately misses the last car for seven nights in succession, when he attempts to learn the latest jazz steps just to please a fair maiden, when he tolerates the cheek and impudence of her rascally young brother, and constantly sniffs up his nostrils the hated scent of eau de cologne—to suggest he is not a victim of Cupid's bow and arrow is a positive insult!"

The passengers on the pleasure steamer, having just finished dinner, were enjoying the beauties of the evening to the full.

Mrs. de Vere surveyed the glories of the wonderful Highland scenery, and felt she could cry from sheer happiness. A majestic ravine came into her view, all tender grays and shimmering browns and blues. She held her breath till they had passed.

"Oh, John!" she said, "what a lovely gorge that was!"

"Yes, darling," he said absently, quite the best feed we've had since we left London."

CREW MEMBERS LAND SAFELY

New York, Feb. 23.—Thirteen members of the crew of the American schooner Rotstellan were landed here today after being rescued from their sinking vessel on February 18, during a gale 450 miles east of Bermuda.

The schooner had been drifting for two months, with food stores almost exhausted, when the men were taken off by the steamer Deepwater, which brought them here.

BEAVERCREEK WILL FACE HIGH TEAM

Two basketball games are on the bill for Wednesday night when Central High meets Beaver Creek High at the rink. Both the first and second string men of the rival schools competing for pre-tournament standing, will engage in combat.

The Beaver lads have a good aggregation this year as they are all veterans and have the advantage of playing together for more than a single season. The Brill boys take good care of the forward positions and if they are not kept under surveillance their opponents had better be careful as both have demonstrated that they do not have to be looking at the basket to loop them in but can accomplish the same result by throwing them over their heads. However, they will encounter some pretty stiff opposition in the pair of guards that grace the floor for the local team and it will take real ability for them to score.

Tonight Coach Faires will take his pill-tossers to Yellow Springs to tackle the strong team representing Yellow Springs High.

WILLIAM DENNING DIES IN KANSAS

William H. Denning, former resident of Greene county, died recently at his home in Hutchinson, Kan., aged 70 years.

Mr. Denning was born in Hopedale, O., August 20, 1844. He served three and one half years with the 74th regiment O. V. I. during the Civil War, and was a member of the Hutchinson Post of the G. A. R. He was wounded at the Battle of Jonesboro, Sept. 1, 1864, and carried a bullet in his left arm until his death, when it was removed as a souvenir for his only grandson.

Mr. Denning was a contractor, and built the first Missouri Pacific station and the Barton Salt Works, at Hutchinson. About 14 years ago he married Miss Jennie Kershner, of Yellow Springs, a wartime sweetheart, who survives him. He also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Minnie King of Anacostia, Mont., and one sister, Mrs. Caroline Leggett, of Ohio, two brothers, Jasper Denning of Ohio, and N. Denning of Hutchinson.

COL. B. W. HOUGH URGED TO ENTER

Col. B. W. Hough, Delaware, Ohio, attorney, late commander of the 166th Infantry, Rainbow Division, and a brother-in-law of Mrs. M. L. Wolf of this city, is being urged as a candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Col. Hough was one of the most popular commanders of the war, and for his services in France and Belgium he was given the Congressional Medal of Honor. He has been growing in popularity since his return. He is one of the ablest attorneys and while he has not expressed himself in regard to his candidacy, his friends are hoping that he will run for the office.

THE PEARY-COOK CONTROVERSY ABOUT THE NORTH POLE.

For several years, along after the year 1910, there raged in this country one of the bitterest controversies imaginable, as to whether Peary or Cook had discovered the North Pole. Each side had its brave advocates, some of whom would become fighting mad against their adversaries. But, in the course of two or three years, the evidence became undoubted that Cook's claims were fraudulent and his supporters had to subside.

Congress, in time, did justice to Peary. On March 3, 1911, it voted to him its special thanks and conferred upon him the rank of Rear Admiral, the promotion and the highest salary permissible dating from the actual discovery of the pole. Special gold medals were also conferred upon him by a number of societies.

Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, retired, discoverer of the North Pole, died at his home in Washington City, on February 20th, after a two years' illness of pernicious anemia, during which thirty-five blood transfusions had been of no avail. Sailors, attaches of the naval hospital, and many ex-service men grieved at their life's blood, during that period in the vain effort to prolong the life of the country's foremost explorer.

On April 6, 1909, Admiral Peary, with Matt Hanson, a Philadelphia negro, who had been his bodyguard, and four Eskimos, stood on the northern axis of the earth. It was the crowning achievement of years of tireless effort, interminable hardship and eight expeditions.

Six months later, on September 6, 1909, his historic message reading, "Stars and Stripes nailed to North Pole," threaded its way to this country from Indian Harbor via Cape Ray, Newfoundland.

Four days previously Dr. Frederick A. Cook had perpetrated his notorious hoax, and when the triumphant explorer returned it was into the caldron of the most famous controversy that has ever agitated world scientific circles. Eventually the irrefutable records of Admirable Peary proved Doctor Cook an impostor.

At the age of 52 years Peary launched his eighth and final expedition in July, 1908. Colonel Roosevelt saw him off and it was to him that Captain Barlett, Admiral Peary's veteran navigator, shouted as the ship got under way, "It's the pole or bust this time, Mr. President." It was the pole.

This time the expedition comprised five detachments which pushed northward in the manner of a telescope. At the 88th parallel Captain Barlett was left in charge of the fourth detachment while Admiral Peary with a member of the crew and four Eskimos faced the north on the final and successful dash. The 135 miles were covered in five days.

For thirty hours, from April 6 to 7, the little party made observations in the vicinity of the pole, located in a vast tract of frozen sea. The weather was fine, the thermometer ranging between 12 and 33 degrees below. Several open spaces were sounded, but the 9,000 feet of wire carried by the party did not reach the bottom of that unknown northern sea.

The roll of Arctic explorers had been voluminous and illustrious. Beginning with the Vikings, it bore the names of Frobenius, Davis, Barents, Hudson, Baffin, Barrow, Scoresby, Parry, Franklin, McClintock, Kane, Hall, Hayes, Payer, Schwatka, Delong, Greeley, Nordenskiöld, Abruzzi, Fiala, Wellman, Amundsen, Nansen and their compeers; all credited with high achievements.

"WHO WON THE WAR?"

It is very patent to any intelligent and well-informed person that Germany and her allies, having been beaten in the war, are now trying to arouse feelings of jealousy among the nations that opposed them. Having failed to make ill feeling between England and France, they are now, through agents—some being press men—trying to make ill feeling between America and England. All this talk about who won the war is astonishingly childish, and is treated as such by politicians and well-informed men and women in England and America. But to those who are inclined to listen to the pro-German propagandists we would like to point out how absurd it would be for any one nation to say she won the war, seeing it was the united efforts of all the nations that were concentrated against the common foe that achieved victory. We would liken the situation in Europe before the United States of America joined the Allies to three horses struggling along with a four-horse load, and after struggling bravely and determinedly for a considerable time, a fourth horse is hitched on, and the load is successfully hauled to the journey's end.

Could any one of those horses be said to have been the one to do it all? No doubt the three horses that had been trying to do the work of four had had the hardest time, and suffered more than the fourth, but only the combined efforts of the four insured success.

And so it was the combined efforts of America and the Allies that brought the war to a successful conclusion. Field Marshal French, who commanded the British army in France and Flanders for the first year and a half of the war, is credited with saying that it was not Wellington but God who won the battle of Waterloo. Would it not be appropriate for us to say it was God who won this great world war?

We always find some funny things in the news, but when we read of the beautiful young girl who sued a hotel for damages for an injury to a limb, sustained when the elevator in which she was riding fell, and how she had to prove to the jury by ocular demonstration the extent of her hurt, we suppose the judge stopped the proceedings because he wasn't invited.

Nothing helps like a little publicity now and then and we suppose that the natives of Iron County, Michigan, who have come out in open rebellion against prohibition laws that while their own activities are doomed to failure, nevertheless their great cause is furthered through their own martyrdom.

We always wait until after the state political rally before picking our candidates, but this year we fear will be an exception to the rule, as Senator Harding has expressed his desire for party victory rather than personal achievement.

With a billion dollars in back taxes due, it is about time for the government to declare a profit sharing plan.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, but I am usually taken to be older. I am good-looking except for my lips. I am not quite six feet tall. I work in an office and dress neatly in heavy clothes.

I like to dance, but never have a fellow to take me, and so my mother or girl friend goes. Even then I miss several dances, and worst of all, no one ever asks me to go to supper with him or takes me home, and so my mother waits and we walk home together.

Please tell me why this is and how I can gain some boy's friendship?

SOBER FACED GIRL.
Without seeing you it is impossible to say why young men do not like you. I would advise you to have some girl friend tell you what she thinks is the reason. Ask her to be frank and say that you really want to know and will appreciate her kindness if she tells you.

Love is always baffling. It goes where it will and can not be forced. Beauty alone does not attract love, because many very plain women are loved and many beautiful women loveless.

Study your friends and try to find out what they consider interesting. If you talk about the things they like and draw them out they will like you. You have called yourself "sober faced" and so it is needless to caution you against giggling.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What would you do if a young man had asked you for steady company and you loved him truly, and then he turned you down?

That young man is twenty-five and I am twenty-two. He bought me a Christmas present and I accepted. A few weeks ago we were at a dance and after the dance he took me home, but he didn't ask me for a date and only kissed me good-night. Since that time I have not seen him. I know he is not sick, but no one knows why he left me.

What shall I do? Shall I write to him or call him and ask what the trouble is? It is hard to give him up. A RUN DOWN PERSON.

Simply accept the truth that the boy no longer cares for you and take your disappointment in such a way that he and others will not know how much he has hurt you. Do not write. His staying away should be explanation enough. If the Christmas present was a piece of jewelry, return it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl sixteen years old and am a sophomore in high school. Every Sunday evening there is a young man who either telephones me or comes down and asks to accompany me to church. I do not like him and treat him very coldly and have told him that I will not go with him, but he continues to pay attention to me. What shall I do to get rid of him?

SWEET SIXTEEN.
When he phones or calls, let your mother or father talk to him. If they say you do not care to go, he will be more likely to understand.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Does it ruin the hair to rat it with a comb? We would like to wear puffs over the ears.

TWIN SISTERS.
Yes, it is very bad for the hair to rat it with a comb. It causes the hair to split and become ragged looking. Ear puffs are no longer in vogue.

"Soon To Be Sixteen": You sent an envelope and requested a personal answer, but you did not sign your name or address the envelope. A personal reply, therefore, is impossible.

ALLEGED AFFIDAVITS IMPLICATE FROCK

Springfield, O., Feb. 24.—Attorneys for the city last night gave out an affidavit made last Thursday by C. R. Baker, which implicated City Commissioner Frock in the garbage scandal, and if true, substantiates testimony of Grover Fleming.

Whitmar last night gave out a statement, charging that Frock had offered a half interest in his sign shop, if Whitmar would perjure himself in Frock's defense. Whitmar refused to do this and has given his information to the city's attorneys.

The developments so far are cause, it is said, to believe that Frock will either resign at once or affidavits charging misfeasance or malfeasance in office will be filed against him.

COAX 'EM

Stop Whipping Bowels into Activity, but take "Cascarets"

aside the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil, or Purgative Waters that irritate and lash the bowels into action but which do not thoroughly cleanse freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels which are keeping you half sick, headachy, and miserable.

Cascarets tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience. Cascarets cost so little too.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN TENDERS RESIGNATION

Mrs. Winifred Armstrong, for the last four years assistant librarian at the Greene County Library, has tendered her resignation to the library board, effective March 5. She will enter business in Xenia. No appointment to fill the vacancy has been made.

A member of the library board said today that Mrs. Armstrong has been a valuable assistant, and that her resignation was a source of regret to the library officials.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, but I am usually taken to be older. I am good-looking except for my lips. I am not quite six feet tall. I work in an office and dress neatly in heavy clothes.

I like to dance, but never have a fellow to take me, and so my mother or girl friend goes. Even then I miss several dances, and worst of all, no one ever asks me to go to supper with him or takes me home, and so my mother waits and we walk home together.

Please tell me why this is and how I can gain some boy's friendship?

SOBER FACED GIRL.

Without seeing you it is impossible to say why young men do not like you. I would advise you to have some girl friend tell you what she thinks is the reason. Ask her to be frank and say that you really want to know and will appreciate her kindness if she tells you.

Love is always baffling. It goes where it will and can not be forced. Beauty alone does not attract love, because many very plain women are loved and many beautiful women are not.

Study your friends and try to find out what they consider interesting. If you talk about the things they like and draw them out they will like you. You have called yourself "sober faced" and so it is needless to caution you against giggling.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What would you do if a young man had asked you for steady company and you loved him truly, and then he turned you down?

That young man is twenty-five and I am twenty-two. He bought me a Christmas present and I accepted. A few weeks ago we were at a dance and after the dance he took me home, but he didn't ask me for a date and only kissed me good-night. Since that time I have not seen him. I know he is not sick, but no one knows why he left me.

What shall I do? Shall I write to him or call him and ask what the trouble is? It is hard to give him up. A RUN DOWN PERSON.

Simply accept the truth that the boy no longer cares for you and take your disappointment in such a way that he and others will not know how much he has hurt you. Do not write. His staying away should be explanation enough. If the Christmas present was a piece of jewelry, return it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl sixteen years old and am a sophomore in high school. Every Sunday evening there is a young man who either telephones me or comes down and asks to accompany me to church. I do not like him and treat him very coldly and have told him that I will not go with him, but he continues to pay attention to me. What shall I do to get rid of him?

SWEET SIXTEEN.

When he phones or calls, let your mother or father talk to him. If they say you do not care to go, he will be more likely to understand.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Does it ruin the hair to rat it with a comb? We would like to wear puffs over the ears. TWIN SISTERS.

Yes, it is very bad for the hair to rat it with a comb. It causes the hair to split and become ragged looking. Ear puffs are no longer in vogue.

"Soon To Be Sixteen": You sent an envelope and requested a personal answer, but you did not sign your name or address the envelope. A personal reply, therefore, is impossible.

LET "DANDERINE" AT THE THEATER

SAVE YOUR HAIR

Check ugly dandruff! Stop hair coming out and double its beauty

A little "Danderine" cools, cleanses and makes the feverish, itchy scalp soft and pliable; then this stimulating tonic penetrates to the famished hair roots, revitalizing and invigorating every hair in the head, thus stopping the hair falling out or getting thin, dry or fading.

After a few applications of "Danderine" you seldom find a fallen hair or a article of dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

A few cents buys a bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter.

ALLEGED AFFIDAVITS IMPLICATE FROCK

Springfield, O., Feb. 24.—Attorneys for the city last night gave out an affidavit made last Thursday by C. R. Baker, which implicated City Commissioner Frock in the garbage scandal, and if true, substantiates testimony of Grover Fleming.

Whitmar last night gave out a statement, charging that Frock had offered a half interest in his sign shop, if Whitmar would perjure himself in Frock's defense. Whitmar refused to do this and has given his information to the city's attorneys.

The developments so far are cause, it is said, to believe that Frock will either resign at once or affidavits charging misfeasance or malfeasance in office will be filed against him.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN TENDERS RESIGNATION

Mrs. Winifred Armstrong, for the last four years assistant librarian at the Greene County Library, has tendered her resignation to the library board, effective March 5. She will enter business in Xenia. No appointment to fill the vacancy has been made.

A member of the library board said today that Mrs. Armstrong has been a valuable assistant, and that her resignation was a source of regret to the library officials.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALUMNI CONSIDER PLAN TO FURNISH AID TO CENTRAL HI

A Central high school alumni "X" Association, to be composed of former Central high school athletes who won their letters in the different sports, to assist in putting athletics at their alma mater on a higher plane, is the proposition now being talked of among some of the former stars.

James Savage, who back in 1910 and 1911 played center on two of the best football teams ever turned out of the school, has proposed the new plan, which has gained favor with a number of local alumni. Dr. C. H. Denner, who was one of the best line smashing half backs ever turned out here and who later was picked as all-state half because of his showing at the University of Cincinnati, is another athlete who thinks favorably of the plan.

While full particulars of the proposition have not been worked out, it is probable that small dues will be charged, and an attempt will be made to get members together for a banquet and meeting, such as the alumni association holds every year. It is also proposed that the association hold itself on the reserve list to take care of athletic emergencies at the local school.

With such an organization working, and with such a membership as it is able to draw from it is thought that the body could serve a purpose such as the alumni of Yale.

Acid-Stomach Makes 9 Out of 10 People Suffer

Doctors declare that more than 70 non-organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. Starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating, sour, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims who are subject to nervousness, headache, insomnia, biliousness—people who suffer from rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and aches and pains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 9 people out of 10 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach.

If you suffer from stomach trouble or, even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and ailing, feel tired and dragged out, lack "pep" and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong although you cannot locate the exact cause of your trouble—your course today. It is guaranteed to please you. If you are not satisfied your doctor will refund your money.

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the blister and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it disappears—how speedily the pain disappears. Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

where the old grads and letter men respond to a call whenever the Yale team gets into deep water. Frequently the assistance, not only in coaching, but in spirit, has pulled "Old Eli" out of the hole.

Athletics at the local school, have been on a low plane recently. The teams both on the gridiron and the basketball court have been unsuccessful. There is a lack of the old spirit, and the old letter does not mean what it used to. This condition, has aroused the old grads of the local school, and with the formation of a society such as proposed, excellent physical and spiritual help could be given the school in putting back athletics on the plane that they were several years ago, when the teams from old Central were known and feared throughout the southern Ohio teams of the state Athletic Association.

R. H. ROCHESTER IS HEAD OF CENTRAL OHIO DIVISION

Appointment of R. H. Rochester, of Cleveland, as superintendent of the Central Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters at Columbus, has been announced.

Mr. Rochester began his official railroad career as superintendent of the Michigan division. Later he was superintendent of the Logansport and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh divisions. During the war, he did railroad service in France. After his return, he was attached for a time to the general manager's office, Pittsburgh, and then returned to the position of superintendent of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division which position he leaves to take up his new duties.

W. C. Downing was appointed superintendent of the Indiana division.

REPORTS DECLARE BEAUTY PREDOMINATES WITH "PRETTY BABY"

Hodges production of "Pretty Predominates," will appear at the opera house Tuesday night under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The offering is heralded as a delirium of syncope that will lure any audience into rare good humor. The entertainment has been termed "The Musical Comedy of the Hour in two Acts." There are thrills aplenty, a maze of lively terpsichorean stunts, lavish and luxurious costumes and a wonderful beauty chorus.

There is further a carefully suggested plot which has to do with a young lady one year wed, who on finding out via a letter that her husband has been trifling from his own hearth, succeeds in winning back to the straight and narrow path with the aid of a droll servant.

WOMAN PASSES AWAY; AGE 75

Mrs. Sarah Elles Stafford, 75 wife of Henry Stafford, died at noon Monday at her home in Dayton, of heart trouble.

Mrs. Stafford was born in Osborn, June 9, 1844. She is survived by her husband, four sons and one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Engle, of the Dayton pike; F. K. Stafford of Lucasville; Edwin and Dr. Harry H. Stafford of Dayton; Herbert S. Stafford of the Y. M. C. A., educational school in New York.

MISS KATE COURSEY DIES IN KENTUCKY

Miss Kate Coursey, former Xenian, died at her home in Ludlow, Ky., Monday morning at 7 o'clock, according to advisers received by relatives here. Death was due to an attack of apoplexy.

Miss Coursey moved to Ludlow from Xenia a number of years ago and had since made her home there. She is survived by two sisters, Misses Marietta and Stella, all of whom made their home together, and two brothers, James H. Coursey and Edward both of whom were also formerly of this city.

Funeral services will be held in Covington Wednesday afternoon.

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 12 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day." John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Duni started giving his hens Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in cold weather, when hens usually stop laying. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a solid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail to Burrell-Dugger Co., 234 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

To Prevent Flu and Colds

Three Rules You Should Observe

- (1) Sleep 8 hours—with windows wide open
- (2) Eat wisely—exercise regularly—don't worry
- (3) Avoid crowds and persons having colds

Flu This Year is Milder.

The rules given above, recommended by the New York City Board of Health, are guides to good health at all times. Particularly should they be followed just now, when influenza is again abroad in the land. Authorities agree, however, that the flu this year is less severe than in the last epidemic—the attacks are shorter and the death rate lower. In fact, many physicians insist that the epidemics now being reported from so many sections are not flu at all but simple the old-fashioned grip.

Keep the Air Passages Healthy

While we know very little more about the flu now than we did last year the germ itself has never been positively identified—still most authorities agree that the flu germs are breathed in. If the system is in good shape and the membrane or lining of the air passages is in healthy condition—these germs are thrown off.

A good plan is to melt a little Vicks' VapoRub in a spoon, night and morning, and inhale the vapors, also apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially just before being exposed to crowds.

Treat All Colds Promptly.

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and make them real breeding grounds for germs. Prompt use of Vicks' VapoRub aids in preventing colds. For head colds, sore throat or hoarseness, rub Vicks well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. For deep chest colds, severe sore throat or bronchitis hot wet towels should be first applied to the throat, chest and back.

between the shoulder blades, to open the pores. Then Vicks should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red—spread on thickly and covered with two thickness of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, so the vapors released by the body heat may be freely inhaled.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the lungs and air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, thus aiding to relieve the congestion within.

Use of External Treatment for Colds Increasing.

Vicks' VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist who found how to combine in salve form the standard time-tested remedies, Camphor—Menthol—Eucalyptus—Thyme, etc.—so that when the salve is applied to the body heat these ingredients are liberated in form of vapors.

Vicks is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used freely and often without the slightest harmful effects.

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the steadily increasing number of people who have been converted to the use of this "outside" treatment.

Beginning with the customer of a small retail drug store, the use of Vicks has grown year by year—state by state—until now more than 17 million jars are used annually. And this in spite of the fact that Vicks is a new form of treatment to many folks in the North and West. Vicks can be had at all druggists in three sizes—30c, 60c or $1.20.

Foreign Symphony Orchestras

As Well as American

SOME of the best records are those of the famous American and foreign Symphony Orchestras. They are recorded on different makes of records.

On The Brunswick you can hear them all—without restriction—and hear them at their best.

This is possible with the Ultona, a new all-record reproducer, and the Brunswick Tone Amplifier.

The Ultona presents to each type of record the proper diaphragm and needle—its correct position on the record—and the degree of pressure necessary to play it at its best.

The Brunswick Amplifier banishes metallic sounds, for it is built entirely of moulded wood like a violin.

We shall be glad to play this super Brunswick for you, and to explain the new Brunswick Method of Reproduction. Drop in when shopping.

ALUMNI CONSIDER PLAN TO FURNISH AID TO CENTRAL HI

A Central high school alumni "X" Association, to be composed of former Central high school athletes who won their letters in the different sports, to assist in putting athletics at their alma mater on a higher plane, is the proposition now being talked of among some of the former stars.

James Savage, who back in 1910 and 1911 played center on two of the best football teams ever turned out of the school, has proposed the new plan, which has gained favor with a number of local alumni. Dr. C. H. Denner, who was one of the best line smashing half backs ever turned out here and who later was picked as all-state half because of his showing at the University of Cincinnati, is another athlete who thinks favorably of the plan.

While full particulars of the proposition have not been worked out it is probable that small dues will be charged, and an attempt will be made to get members together for a banquet and meeting, such as the alumni association holds, every year. It is also proposed that the association hold itself on the reserve list to take care of athletic emergencies at the local school.

With such an organization working, and with such a membership as it is able to draw from it is thought that the body could serve a purpose such as the alumni of Yale,

Acid-Stomach Makes 9 Out of 10 People Suffer

Doctors declare that more than 70 non organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. Starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating, sour, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims of Acid-Stomach everywhere—people who are subject to nervousness, headache, insomnia, biliousness—people who suffer from rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and aches and pains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 9 people out of 10 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach.

If you suffer from stomach trouble, or even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and ailing, feel tired and dragged out, lack pep and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong although you cannot locate the exact cause of your trouble—you naturally want to get back your grip on health as quickly as possible. Then take EATONIC, the wonderful medicine remedy that brings quick relief from pains of indigestion, belching, gassy bloating, etc. Keep your stomach strong, clean and sweet. See how your general health improves—how quickly the old-time vigor and vitality come back! Get a box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It is guaranteed to please you. If you are not satisfied your druggist will refund your money.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

where the old grads and letter men respond to a call whenever the Yale team gets into deep water. Frequently the assistance, not only in coaching, but in spirit, has pulled "Old Eli" out of the hole.

Athletics at the local school, have been on a low plane recently. The teams both on the gridiron and the basketball court have been unsuccessful. There is a lack of the old spirit, and the old letter does not mean what it used to. This condition has aroused the old grads of the local school, and with the formation of a society such as proposed, excellent physical and spiritual help could be given the school in putting back athletics on the plane that they were several years ago, when the teams from old Central were known and feared throughout the southern Ohio teams of the state Athletic Association.

R. H. ROCHESTER IS HEAD OF CENTRAL OHIO DIVISION

Appointment of R. H. Rochester, of Cleveland, as superintendent of the Central Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters at Columbus, has been announced.

Mr. Rochester began his official railroad career as superintendent of the Michigan division. Later he was superintendent of the Logansport and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh divisions. During the war, he did railroad service in France. After his return, he was attached for a time to the general manager's office, Pittsburgh, and then returned to the position of superintendent of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division which position he leaves to take up his new duties.

W. C. Downing was appointed superintendent of the Indiana division.

REPORTS DECLARE BEAUTY PREDOMINATES WITH "PRETTY BABY"

Hodges production of "Pretty predominates, will appear and beauty predominates, will appear at the opera house Tuesday night under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The offering is heralded as a delirium of cynicism that will lure any audience into rare good humor. The entertainment has been termed "The Musical Comedy of the Hour in two Acts." There are thrills aplenty, a maze of lively terpsichorean stunts, lavish and luxurious costumes and a wonderful beauty chorus.

There is further a carefully suggested plot which has to do with a young lady one year wed, who on finding out via a letter that her husband has been trifling from his own hearth, succeeds in winning back to the straight and narrow path with the aid of a droll servant.

WOMAN PASSES AWAY; AGE 75

Mrs. Sarah Elles Stafford, 75 wife of Henry Stafford, died at noon Monday at her home in Dayton, of heart trouble.

Mrs. Stafford was born in Osborn, June 9, 1844. She is survived by her husband, four sons and one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Engle, of the Dayton rike; F. K. Stafford of Lucasville; Edwin and Dr. Harry H. Stafford of Dayton; Herbert S. Stafford of the Y. M. C. A. educational school in New York.

MISS KATE COURSEY DIES IN KENTUCKY

Miss Kate Coursey, former Xenian, died at her home in Ludlow, Ky., Monday morning, at 7 o'clock, according to advises received by relatives here. Death was due to an attack of apoplexy.

Miss Coursey moved to Ludlow from Xenia a number of years ago and had since made her home there. She is survived by two sisters, Misses Marietta and Stella, all of whom made their home together, and two brothers, James H. Coursey and Edward both of whom were also formerly of this city.

Funeral services will be held in Covington Wednesday afternoon.

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan Is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 12 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day."—John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Duni started giving his hens Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in cold weather, when hens usually stop laying. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by return mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 234 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

To Prevent Flu and Colds

Three Rules You Should Observe

- (1) Sleep 8 hours—with windows wide open
- (2) Eat wisely—exercise regularly—don't worry
- (3) Avoid crowds and persons having colds

Flu This Year is Milder.

The rules given above, recommended by the New York City Board of Health, are guides to good health at all times. Particularly should they be followed just now, when influenza is again abroad in the land. Authorities agree, however, that the flu this year is less severe than in the last epidemic—the attacks are shorter and the death rate lower. In fact, many physicians insist that the epidemics now being reported from so many sections are not flu at all but simple the old-fashioned grip.

Keep the Air Passages Healthy

While we know very little more about the flu now than we did last year the germ itself has never been positively identified—still most authorities agree that the flu germs are breathed in. If the system is in good shape and the membrane or lining of the air passages is in healthy condition—these germs are thrown off.

A good plan is to melt a little Vicks' VapoRub in a spoon, night and morning, and inhale the vapors, also apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially just before being exposed to crowds.

Treat All Colds Promptly.

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and make them real breeding grounds for germs. Prompt use of Vicks' VapoRub aids in preventing colds. For head colds, sore throat or hoarseness, rub Vicks well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. For deep chest colds, severe sore throat or bronchitis, hot wet towels should be first applied to the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades, to open the pores. Then Vicks should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red—spread on thickly and covered with two thickness of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, so the vapors released by the body heat may be freely inhaled.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the lungs and air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, thus aiding to relieve the congestion within.

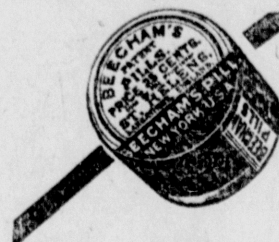

Use of External Treatment for Colds Increasing.

Vicks' Vapo Rub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist who found how to combine in salve form the standard time-tested remedies, Camphor—Menthol—Eucalyptus—Thyme, etc.—so that when the salve is applied to the body heat these ingredients are liberated in form of vapors.

Vicks is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used freely and often without the slightest harmful effects.

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the steadily increasing number of people who have been converted to the use of this "outside" treatment.

Beginning with the customers of a small retail drug store, the use of Vicks has grown year by year—state by state—until now more than 17 million jars are used annually. And this in spite of the fact that Vicks is a new form of treatment to many folks in the North and West. Vicks can be had at all druggists in three sizes—30c, 60c or $1.20.

Foreign Symphony Orchestras

As Well as American

SOME of the best records are those of the famous American and foreign Symphony Orchestras. They are recorded on different makes of records.

On The Brunswick you can hear them all—without restriction—and hear them at their best.

This is possible with the Ultona, a new all-record reproducer, and the Brunswick Tone Amplifier.

The Ultona presents to each type of record the proper diaphragm and needle—its correct position on the record—and the degree of pressure necessary to play it at its best.

The Brunswick Amplifier banishes metallic sounds, for it is built entirely of moulded wood like a violin.

We shall be glad to play this super Brunswick for you, and to explain the new Brunswick Method of Reproduction. Drop in when shopping.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, but I am usually taken to be older. I am good-looking except for my lips. I am not quite six feet tall. I work in an office and dress neatly in heavy clothes.

I like to dance, but never have a fellow to take me, and so my mother or girl friend goes. Even then I miss several dances, and worst of all, no one ever asks me to go to supper with him or takes me home, and so my mother waits and we walk home together.

Please tell me why this is and how I can gain some boy's friendship?

SOBER FACED GIRL.

Without seeing you it is impossible to say why young men do not like you. I would advise you to have some girl friend tell you what she thinks is the reason. Ask her to be frank and say that you really want to know and will appreciate her kindness if she tells you.

Love is always baffling. It goes where it will and can not be forced. Beauty alone does not attract love, because many very plain women are loved and many beautiful women loveless.

Study your friends and try to find out what they consider interesting. If you talk about the things they like and draw them out they will like you. You have called yourself "sober faced" and so it is needless to caution you against giggling.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What would you do if a young man had asked you for steady company and you loved him truly, and then he turned you down?

That young man is twenty-five and I am twenty-two. He bought me a Christmas present and I accepted. A few weeks ago we were at a dance and after the dance he took me home, but he didn't ask me for a date and only kissed me good-night. Since that time I have not seen him. I know he is not sick, but no one knows why he left me.

What shall I do? Shall I write to him or call him and ask what the trouble is? It is hard to give him up. A RUN DOWN PERSON.

Simply accept the truth that the boy no longer cares for you and take your disappointment in such a way that he and others will not know how much he has hurt you. Do not write. His staying away should be explanation enough. If the Christmas present was a piece of jewelry, return it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl sixteen years old and am a sophomore in high school. Every Sunday evening there is a young man who either telephones me or comes down and asks to accompany me to church. I do not like him and treat him very coldly and have told him that I will not go with him, but he continues to pay attention to me. What shall I do to get rid of him?

SWEET SIXTEEN.

When he phones or calls, let your mother or father talk to him. If they say you do not care to go, he will be more likely to understand.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Does it ruin the hair to rat it with a comb? We would like to wear puffs over the ears.

TWIN SISTERS.

Yes, it is very bad for the hair to rat it with a comb. It causes the hair to split and become ragged looking. Ear puffs are no longer in vogue.

"Soon To Be Sixteen": You sent an envelope and requested a personal answer, but you did not sign your name or address the envelope. A personal reply, therefore, is impossible.

Sleep?

Does a dry cough keep you awake?

KEMP'S BALSAM will stop the tickle that makes you cough. GUARANTEED.

ALLEGED AFFIDAVITS IMPLICATE FROCK

Springfield, O., Feb. 24.—Attorneys for the city last night gave out an affidavit made last Thursday by C. R. Baker, which implicated City Commissioner Frock in the garbage scandal, and if true, substantiates testimony of Grover Fleming.

Whitmar last night gave out a statement, charging that Frock had offered a half interest in his sign shop, if Whitmar would perjure himself in Frock's defense. Whitmar refused to do this and has given his information to the city's attorneys.

The developments so far are cause, it is said, to believe that Frock will either resign at once or affidavits charging misfeasance or malfeasance in office will be filed against him.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN TENDERS RESIGNATION

Mrs. Winifred Armstrong, for the last four years assistant librarian at the Greene County Library, has tendered her resignation to the library board, effective March 5. She will enter business in Xenia. No appointment to fill the vacancy has been made.

A member of the library board said today that Mrs. Armstrong has been a valuable assistant, and that her resignation was a source of regret to the library officials.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

COAX 'EM

Stop Whipping Bowels into Activity, but take "Cascarets"

Aside the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil, or Purgative Waters that irritate and lash the bowels into action but which do not thoroughly cleanse freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels which are keeping you half sick, headachy, and miserable.

Cascarets tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience. Cascarets cost so little too.

SOBER FACED GIRL.
Without seeing you it is impossible to say why young men do not like you. I would advise you to have some girl friend tell you what she thinks is the reason. Ask her to be frank and say that you really want to know and will appreciate her kindness if she tells you.

Love is always baffling. It goes where it will and can not be forced. Beauty alone does not attract love, because many very plain women are loved and many beautiful women loveless.

Study your friends and try to find out what they consider interesting. If you talk about the things they like and draw them out they will like you. You have called yourself "sober faced" and so it is needless to caution you against giggling.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What would you do if a young man had asked you for steady company and you loved him truly, and then he turned you down?

That young man is twenty-five and I am twenty-two. He bought me a Christmas present and I accepted. A few weeks ago we were at a dance and after the dance he took me home, but he didn't ask me for a date and only kissed me good-night. Since that time I have not seen him. I know he is not sick, but no one knows why he left me.

What shall I do? Shall I write to him or call him and ask what the trouble is? It is hard to give him up. A RUN DOWN PERSON.
Simply accept the truth that the boy no longer cares for you and take your disappointment in such a way that he and others will not know how much he has hurt you. Do not write. His staying away should be explanation enough. If the Christmas present was a piece of jewelry, return it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl sixteen years old and am a sophomore in high school. Every Sunday evening there is a young man who either telephones me or comes down and asks to accompany me to church. I do not like him and treat him very coldly and have told him that I will not go with him, but he continues to pay attention to me. What shall I do to get rid of him?

SWEET SIXTEEN.
When he phones or calls, let your mother or father talk to him. If they say you do not care to go, he will be more likely to understand.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Does it ruin the hair to rat it with a comb? We would like to wear puffs over the ears.

TWIN SISTERS.
Yes, it is very bad for the hair to rat it with a comb. It causes the hair to split and become ragged looking. Ear puffs are no longer in vogue.

"Soon To Be Sixteen": You sent an envelope and requested a personal answer, but you did not sign your name or address the envelope. A personal reply, therefore, is impossible.

LET "DANDERINE" AT THE THEATER

SAVE YOUR HAIR

Check ugly dandruff! Stop hair coming out and double its beauty

A little "Danderine" cools, cleanses and makes the feverish, itchy scalp soft and pliable; then this stimulating tonic penetrates to the famished hair roots, revitalizing and invigorating every hair in the head, thus stopping the hair falling out or getting thin, dry or fading.

After a few applications of "Danderine" you seldom find a fallen hair or a article of dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

A few cents buys a bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter.

ALLEGED AFFIDAVITS IMPLICATE FROCK

Springfield, O., Feb. 24.—Attorneys for the city last night gave out an affidavit made last Thursday by C. R. Baker, which implicated City Commissioner Frock in the garbage scandal, and if true, substantiates testimony of Grover Fleming.

Whitmar last night gave out a statement, charging that Frock had offered a half interest in his sign shop, if Whitmar would perjure himself in Frock's defense. Whitmar refused to do this and has given his information to the city's attorneys.

The developments so far are cause, it is said, to believe that Frock will either resign at once or affidavit charging misfeasance or malfeasance.

COAX 'EM

Stop Whipping Bowels into Activity, but take "Cascarets"

aside the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil, or Purgative Waters that irritate and lash the bowels into action but which do not thoroughly cleanse freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels which are keeping you half sick, headachy, and miserable.

Cascarets tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience. Cascarets cost so little too.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

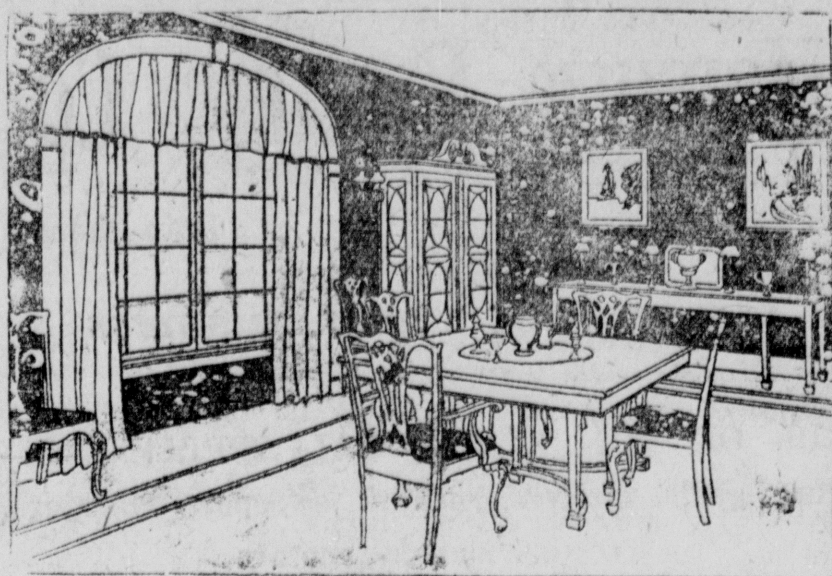

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALUMNI CONSIDER PLAN TO FURNISH AID TO CENTRAL HI

A Central high school alumni "X" Association, to be composed of former Central high school athletes who won their letters in the different sports, to assist in putting athletics at their alma mater on a higher plane, is the proposition now being talked of among some of the former stars.

James Savage, who back in 1910 and 1911 played center on two of the best football teams ever turned out of the school, has proposed the new plan, which has gained favor with a number of local alumni. Dr. C. H. Denner, who was one of the best line smashing half backs ever turned out here and who later was picked as all-state half because of his showing at the University of Cincinnati, is another athlete who thinks favorably of the plan.

While full particulars of the proposition have not been worked out it is probable that small dues will be charged, and an attempt will be made to get members together for a banquet and meeting, such as the alumni association holds, every year. It is also proposed that the association hold itself on the reserve list to take care of athletic emergencies at the local school.

With such an organization working, and with such a membership as it is able to draw from it is thought that the body could serve a purpose such as the alumni of Yale.

Acid-Stomach Makes 9 Out of 10 People Suffer

Doctors declare that more than 70 non organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. Starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims of Acid-Stomach everywhere—people who are subject to nervousness, headache, insomnia, biliousness—people who suffer from rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and aches and pains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 9 people out of 10 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach.

If you suffer from stomach trouble or, even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and ailing, feel tired and dragged out, lack "pep" and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong although you cannot locate the exact cause of your trouble—you naturally want to get back your grip on health as quickly as possible. Then take EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy that brings quick relief from pains of indigestion, belching, gassy bloating, etc. Keep your stomach strong, clean and sweet. See how your general health improves—how quickly the fine vim, vigor and vitality come back! Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It is guaranteed to please you. If you are not satisfied your druggist will refund your money.

EATONIC (FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACH)

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

where the old grads and letter men respond to a call whenever the Yale team gets into deep water. Frequently the assistance, not only in coaching, but in spirit, has pulled "Old Eli" out of the hole.

Athletics at the local school, have been on a low plane recently. The teams both on the gridiron and the basketball court have been unsuccessful. There is a lack of the old spirit, and the old letter does not mean what it used to. This condition, has aroused the old grads of the local school, and with the formation of a society such as proposed, excellent physical and spiritual help could be given the school in putting back athletics on the plane that they were several years ago, when the teams from old Central were known and feared throughout the southern Ohio teams of the state Athletic Association.

R. H. ROCHESTER IS HEAD OF CENTRAL OHIO DIVISION

Appointment of R. H. Rochester, of Cleveland, as superintendent of the Central Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters at Columbus, has been announced.

Mr. Rochester began his official railroad career as superintendent of the Michigan division. Later he was superintendent of the Logansport and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh divisions. During the war, he did railroad service in France. After his return, he was attached for a time to the general manager's office, Pittsburgh, and then returned to the position of superintendent of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division which position he leaves to take up his new duties.

W. C. Downing was appointed superintendent of the Indiana division.

REPORTS DECLARE BEAUTY PREDOMINATES WITH "PRETTY BABY"

Hodges production of "Pretty predominates, will appear and beauty predominates, will appear at the opera house Tuesday night under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The offering is heralded as a delirium of syncope that will lure any audience into rare good humor. The entertainment has been termed "The Musical Comedy of the Hour in two Acts." There are frills aplenty, a maze of lively terpsichorean stunts, lavish and luxurious costumes and a wonderful beauty chorus.

There is further a carefully suggested plot which has to do with a young lady one year wed, who on finding out via a letter that her husband has been trifling from his own hearth, succeeds in winning back to the straight and narrow path with the aid of a droll servant.

WOMAN PASSES AWAY, AGE 75

Mrs. Sarah Elles Stafford, 75 wife of Henry Stafford, died at noon Monday at her home in Dayton, of heart trouble.

Mrs. Stafford was born in Osborn, June 9, 1844. She is survived by her husband, four sons and one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Engle, of the Dayton pike; F. K. Stafford of Lucasville; Edwin and Dr. Harry H. Stafford of Dayton; Herbert S. Stafford of the Y. M. C. A., educational school in New York.

MISS KATE COURSEY DIES IN KENTUCKY

Miss Kate Coursey, former Xenian, died at her home in Ludlow, Ky., Monday morning, at 7 o'clock, according to advises received by relatives here. Death was due to an attack of apoplexy.

Miss Coursey moved to Ludlow from Xenia a number of years ago and had since made her home there. She is survived by two sisters, Misses Marietta and Stella, all of whom made their home together, and two brothers, James H. Coursey and Edward both of whom were also formerly of this city.

Funeral services will be held in Covington Wednesday afternoon.

SUSPENDS PUBLICATION

Montreal, Feb. 23.—The Montreal Star today announced that it will suspend publication beginning tomorrow because of the paper shortage. The paper attacks the government for its handling of the paper shortage situation.

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 12 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day."—John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Duni started giving his hens Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in cold weather, when hens usually stop laying. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 10 cents for a package by mail to J. B. Burrell, Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

To Prevent Flu and Colds

Three Rules You Should Observe

- (1) Sleep 8 hours—with windows wide open
- (2) Eat wisely—exercise regularly—don't worry
- (3) Avoid crowds and persons having colds

Flu This Year is Milder.

The rules given above, recommended by the New York City Board of Health, are guides to good health at all times. Particularly should they be followed just now, when influenza is again abroad in the land. Authorities agree, however, that the flu this year is less severe than in the last epidemic—the attacks are shorter and the death rate lower. In fact, many physicians insist that the epidemics now being reported from so many sections are not flu at all but simple the old-fashioned grip.

Keep the Air Passages Healthy

While we know very little more about the flu now than we did last year the germ itself has never been positively identified—still most authorities agree that the flu germs are breathed in. If the system is in good shape and the membrane or lining of the air passages is in healthy condition—these germs are thrown off.

A good plan is to melt a little Vicks' VapoRub in a spoon, night and morning, and inhale the vapors, also apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially just before being exposed to crowds.

Treat All Colds Promptly.

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and make them real breeding grounds for germs. Prompt use of Vicks' VapoRub aids in preventing colds. For head colds, sore throat or hoarseness, rub Vicks well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. For deep chest colds, severe sore throat or bronchitis, hot wet towels should be first applied to the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades, to open the pores. Then Vicks should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red—spread on thickly and covered with two thickness of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, so the vapors released by the body heat may be freely inhaled.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the lungs and air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, thus aiding to relieve the congestion within.

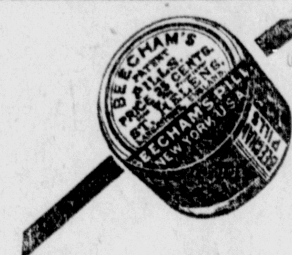

Use of External Treatment for Colds Increasing.

Vicks' VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist who found how to combine in salve form the standard time-tested remedies, Camphor—Menthol—Eucalyptus—Thyme, etc.—so that when the salve is applied to the body heat these ingredients are liberated in form of vapors.

Vicks is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used freely and often without the slightest harmful effects.

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the steadily increasing number of people who have been converted to the use of this "outside" treatment.

Beginning with the customers of a small retail drug store, the use of Vicks has grown year by year—state by state—until now more than 17 million jars are used annually. And this in spite of the fact that Vicks is a new form of treatment to many folks in the North and West. Vicks can be had at all druggists in three sizes—30c, 60c or $1.20.

ALUMNI CONSIDER PLAN TO FURNISH AID TO CENTRAL HI

A Central high school alumni "X" Association, to be composed of former Central high school athletes who won their letters in the different sports, to assist in putting athletics at their alma mater on a higher plane, is the proposition now being talked of among some of the former stars.

James Savage, who back in 1910 and 1911 played center on two of the best football teams ever turned out of the school, has proposed the new plan, which has gained favor with a number of local alumni. Dr. C. H. Denner, who was one of the best line smashes half backs ever turned out here and who later was picked as all-state half because of his showing at the University of Cincinnati, is another athlete who thinks favorably of the plan.

While full particulars of the proposition have not been worked out it is probable that small dues will be charged, and an attempt will be made to get members together for a banquet and meeting, such as the alumni association holds, every year. It is also proposed that the association hold itself on the reserve list to take care of athletic emergencies at the local school.

With such an organization working, and with such a membership as it is able to draw from it is thought that the body could serve a purpose such as the alumni of Yale,

Acid-Stomach Makes 9 Out of 10 People Suffer

Doctors declare that more than 70 non organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. Starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims of Acid-Stomach everywhere—people who are subject to nervousness, headache, insomnia, dizziness—people who suffer from rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and aches and pains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 9 people out of 10 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach.

If you suffer from stomach trouble, or even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and ailing, feel tired and dragged out, lack pep and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong, although you cannot locate the exact cause of your trouble—you naturally want to get back your grip on health as quickly as possible. Then take EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy that brings quick relief from pains of indigestion, belching, gassy bloating, etc. Keep your stomach strong, clean and sweet. See how you feel after a few days. You will quickly get the old-time vim, vigor and vitality come back!

Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It is guaranteed to please you. If you are not satisfied your druggist will refund your money.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Athletics at the local school, have been on a low plane recently. The teams both on the gridiron and the basketball court have been unsuccessful. There is a lack of the old spirit, and the old letter does not mean what it used to. This condition, has aroused the old grads of the local school, and with the formation of a society such as proposed, excellent physical and spiritual help could be given the school in putting lack athletics on the plane that they were several years ago, when the teams from old Central were known and feared throughout the southern Ohio teams of the state Athletic Association.

R. H. ROCHESTER IS HEAD OF CENTRAL OHIO DIVISION

Appointment of R. H. Rochester, of Cleveland, as superintendent of the Central Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters at Columbus, has been announced.

Mr. Rochester began his official railroad career as superintendent of the Michigan division. Later he was superintendent of the Logansport and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh divisions. During the war, he did railroad service in France. After his return, he was attached for a time to the general manager's office, Pittsburgh, and then returned to the position of superintendent of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division which position he leaves to take up his new duties.

W. C. Downing was appointed superintendent of the Indiana division.

REPORTS DECLARE BEAUTY PREDOMINATES WITH "PRETTY BABY"

Hodges production of "Pretty predominates, will appear and beauty predominates, will appear at the opera house Tuesday night under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The offering is heralded as a delirium of syncope that will lure any audience into rare good humor. The entertainment has been termed "The Musical Comedy of the Hour in two Acts." There are thrills aplenty, a maze of lively terpsichorean stunts, lavish and luxurious costumes and a wonderful beauty chorus.

There is further a carefully suggested plot which has to do with a young lady one year wed, who on finding out via a letter that her husband has been trifling from his own hearth, succeeds in winning back to the straight and narrow path with the aid of a droll servant.

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Dun's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 12 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day."

John Dun, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa. Mr. Dun started giving his hens Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in cold weather, when hens usually stop laying. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail to J. B. Burdett, Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Building, Indianapolis, Ind.

To Prevent Flu and Colds

Three Rules You Should Observe

- (1) Sleep 8 hours—with windows wide open
- (2) Eat wisely—exercise regularly—don't worry
- (3) Avoid crowds and persons having colds

Flu This Year is Milder.

The rules given above, recommended by the New York City Board of Health, are guides to good health at all times. Particularly should they be followed just now, when influenza is again abroad in the land. Authorities agree, however, that the flu this year is less severe than in the last epidemic—the attacks are shorter and the death rate lower. In fact, many physicians insist that the epidemics now being reported from so many sections are not flu at all but simple the old-fashioned grip.

Keep the Air Passages Healthy

While we know very little more about the flu now than we did last year the germ itself has never been positively identified—still most authorities agree that the flu germs are breathed in. If the system is in good shape and the membrane or lining of the air passages is in healthy condition—these germs are thrown off.

A good plan is to melt a little Vick's VapoRub in a spoon, night and morning, and inhale the vapors, also apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially just before being exposed to crowds.

Treat All Colds Promptly.

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and make them real breeding grounds for germs. Prompt use of Vick's VapoRub aids in preventing colds. For head colds, sore throat or hoarseness, rub Vick's well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. For deep chest colds, severe sore throat or bronchitis, hot wet towels should be first applied to the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades, to open the pores. Then Vicks should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red—spread on thickly and covered with two thickness of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, so the vapors released by the body heat may be freely inhaled.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the lungs and air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, thus aiding to relieve the congestion within.

Use of External Treatment for Colds Increasing.

Vick's VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist who found how to combine in salve form the standard time-tested remedies, Camphor—Menthol—Eucalyptus—Thyme, etc.—so that when the salve is applied to the body heat these ingredients are liberated in form of vapors.

Vicks is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used freely and often without the slightest harmful effects.

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the steadily increasing number of people who have been converted to the use of this "outside" treatment.

Beginning with the customers of a small retail drug store, the use of Vicks has grown year by year—state by state—until now more than 17 million jars are used annually. And this in spite of the fact that Vicks is a new form of treatment to many folks in the North and West. Vicks can be had at all druggists in three sizes—30c, 60c or $1.20.

For 50 cents you can get 3 ounces of Glando Pine, mix it with enough good syrup or strained honey to make a pint and you will have the best cough medicine you ever used. It can't be beat for coughs, colds, hoarseness, throat irritations or croup. Glando Pine relieves the spasmodic coughing in whooping cough. Children love to take it. To prevent a cold from developing into pneumonia or bronchitis, hold a teaspoonful of Glando Pine well back in the mouth or throat and take a few deep breaths before swallowing. You can feel the air cells opening up and you will breathe deep and easy.

Mrs. W. M. Fellers, of Lima, Ohio, says: "I took cold which developed into a severe cough. It hung on for several months. I coughed terribly especially at night. I lived in a flat and my neighbors, believing me to have tuberculosis, asked the owner of the flat to have me move out, which he did. I used different remedies, but found no relief until I used Glando Pine. The first dose seemed to help me. I began gaining flesh, and by the time I had used two bottles my cough was gone. Over 2 years have passed and my cough has not returned. I believe Glando Pine saved my life."

Glando Pine is manufactured by the Gland-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ENGLISH WOMEN SAY NO ALARM
FELT OVER SURPLUS OF A MILLION
OF SEX IN BRITISH ISLES TODAY

London, Feb. 24.—A statement by Dr. R. Murray Leslie that England has 1,000,000 "too many" women and that something ought to be done about it has aroused angry and resentful comment among the prominent feminists. They declare that the modern woman, with her diversified interests is not a husband hunter and that no alarm need be felt over the fact that there are no male mates for one million British women.

Radical views on the subject were expressed today by Miss Norah March, editor of "National Health" and an authority on eugenics. She contends that a new social and moral code is growing up which will solve the question.

"The important thing to consider is whether, with one million unmarried women, England can maintain her population at its natural state of increase," she said. "We want parenthood encouraged only among the fit. A large number of these surplus women, from a physical and mental standpoint, would make admirable mothers. We are now in a state of transition and our whole moral code is under review. It may be that the day will come when a new social code will help us solve the problem of these surplus women."

"For forty years feminists have declared that marriage ought not to be the whole end of existence for women," said Miss Underwood, secretary of the women's federation league. "Now, in view of women's wider interests, they only look upon marriage as a minor incident in their lives. Present day marriages are not attractive to many women. It is not the want of opportunity for marriage which makes women discontented, but her unequal economic position compared with that of men. When she secures equality with men professionally and industrially and in every other direction, you will not have discontented women. A well developed woman needs activity, not protection."

Miss Lillian Barker, woman's organizer said: "There is a type of woman who is not anxious to get married. I do not look for any grand 'husband hunt'."

"Some of the finest public and social work of modern times is being done by women who are not wives, and thousands of unmarried women are rendering high service to their nation by their useful lives," said Miss Beatrice Harriman, author of "Ships that Pass in the Night."

It is contended that the war improved the type of women in the British Isles and many persons interested in the matter are emigration of British girls. Among them is the Marchioness of Townsend, who said:

"A far better way than emigration would be to attract the girls to the countryside, where they would not all be herded together in towns. They could live better lives. But the men, too, must be attracted to the country and happiness and domesticity made possible in the villages. Really, the root of all evil is there is not enough real love in the world. In the sense of the real Darby and Joan romance. Family life is the backbone of the nation and it is to this ideal we must aim."

Dr. Leslie had suggested that the morals of the modern girls are lower than those of their grandmothers. This charge brought a vigorous response from Mrs. Pember Reeves, well known author, who said:

"I do not believe that girls today are any worse than their grandmothers were. To ship them wholesale to the colonies would be absurd. Better drown the girls if they are such a menace and such a nuisance."

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

"I was all run-down, haggard and thin looking and felt weak and nervous all the time. I wasn't myself at all and nights I couldn't sleep I was some days and my appetite wasn't so restless. I could hardly drag around, very good. I picked up the newspaper one night and saw where the local druggist was featuring the latest thing in tonics which they claimed was much stronger than old fashioned kinds so I went down to the store and got a bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod and let me tell you this: It does do what they say for I feel like a different person."

"My work seems easy and I have so much more appetite, energy and strength and my nerves are so steady I am going to get a bottle for my husband and knock out a cold he has now and build him up too," declared Mrs. John McDonald, 1265 Essex Avenue, Dayton, O.

Many a woman could add a few pounds, bring out the roses in her pallid cheeks and bring the old sparkle to her eye by simply enriching her blood a little bit and restoring her digestion with a dose of Earle's Hypo-Cod, just before meals for a few days. Just read the formula on the bottle and you will see that all ingredients used are ideal and the name of the nationally known Earle Chemical Co., assures you of quality and full strength. WOMEN NEED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Surely Removes Suffering and Pain. Here is Proof.

St. Paul, Neb.—"I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. WILL THOMAS, St. Paul, Neb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who now are free from suffering by its use.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH
WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made
Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

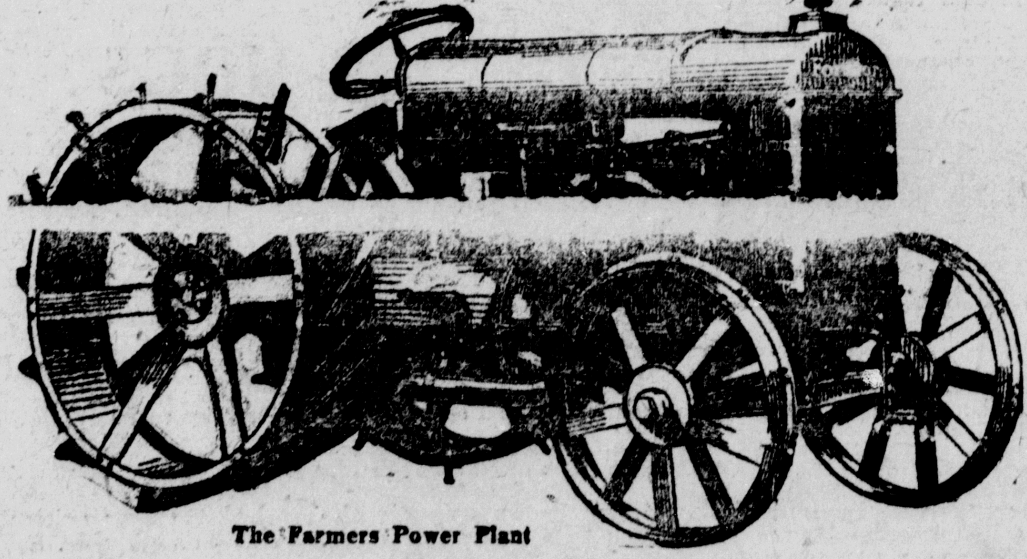

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

This is particularly true in regard to the Fordson. Its popularity has created a demand that makes it certain, that some farm owners, desirous of obtaining the Fordson, must be disappointed.

Get your order in early. Make sure of getting the Fordson on your farm quickly so that you may become thoroughly familiar with its operation and be able to use it to the best advantage right at the beginning of your spring work.

We carry a full line of parts for the tractor ready for you when you need then you can get any repair. No waiting for slow mails or express service.

Phone us to come and see you—or drop in and see the Fordson.

For 50 cents you can get 3 ounces of Glando Pine, mix it with enough good syrup or strained honey to make a pint and you will have the best cough medicine you ever used. It can't be beat for coughs, colds, hoarseness, throat irritations or croup. Glando Pine relieves the spasmodic coughing in whooping cough. Children love to take it. To prevent a cold from developing into pneumonia or bronchitis, hold a teaspoonful of Glando Pine well back in the mouth or throat and take a few deep breaths before swallowing. You can feel the air cells opening up and you will breathe deep and easy.

Mrs. W. M. Fellers, of Lima, Ohio, says: "I took cold which developed into a severe cough. It hung on for several months. I coughed terribly especially at night. I lived in a flat and my neighbors, believing me to have tuberculosis, asked the owner of the flat to have me move out, which he did. I used different remedies, but found no relief until I used Glando Pine. The first dose seemed to help me. I began gaining flesh, and by the time I had used two bottles my cough was gone. Over 2 years have passed and my cough has not returned. I believe Glando Pine saved my life."

Glando Pine is manufactured by the Gland-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ENGLISH WOMEN SAY NO ALARM FELT OVER SURPLUS OF A MILLION OF SEX IN BRITISH ISLES TODAY

London, Feb. 24.—A statement by Dr. R. Murray Leslie that England has 1,000,000 "too many" women and that something ought to be done about it has aroused angry and resentful comment among the prominent feminists. They declare that the modern woman, with her diversified interests is not a husband hunter and that no alarm need be felt over the fact that there are no male mates for one million British women.

Radical views on the subject were expressed today by Miss Norah March, editor of "National Health" and an authority on eugenics. She contends that a new social and moral code is growing up which will solve the question.

"The important thing to consider is whether, with one million unmarried women, England can maintain her population at its natural state of increase," she said. "We want parenthood encouraged only among the fit. A large number of these surplus women, from a physical and mental standpoint, would make admirable mothers. We are now in a state of transition and our whole moral code is under review. It may be that the day will come when a new social code will help us solve the problem of these surplus women."

"For forty years feminists have declared that marriage ought not to be the whole end of existence for women," said Miss Underwood, secretary of the women's federation league. "Now, in view of women's wider interests, they only look upon marriage as a minor incident in their lives. Present day marriages are not attractive to many women. It is not the want of opportunity for marriage which makes women discontented, but her unequal economic position compared with that of men. When she secures equality with men professionally and industrially and in every other direction, you will not have discontented women. A well developed woman needs activity, not protection."

Miss Lillian Barker, woman's organizer said: "There is a type of woman who is not anxious to get married. I do not look for any grand 'husband hunt'."

Some of the finest public and social work of modern times is being done by women who are not wives, and thousands of unmarried women are rendering high service to their nation by their useful lives," said Miss Beatrice Harriman, author of "Ships that Pass in the Night."

It is contended that the war improved the type of women in the British Isles and many persons interested in the matter are emigration of British girls. Among them is the Marchioness of Townsend, who said:

"A far better way than emigration would be to attract the girls to the countryside, where they would not all be herded together in towns. They could live better lives. But the men, too, must be attracted to the country and happiness and domesticity made possible in the villages. Really, the root of all evil is there is not enough real love in the world, in the sense of the real Darby and Joan romance. Family life is the backbone of the nation and it is to this ideal we must aim."

Dr. Leslie had suggested that the morals of the modern girls are lower than those of their grandmothers. This charge brought a vigorous response from Mrs. Pember Reeves, well known author, who said: "I do not believe that girls today are any worse than their grandmothers were. To ship them wholesale to the colonies would be absurd. Better drown the girls if they are such a menace and such a nuisance."

 Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

TOOK EARLE'S HYPO-COD

"I was all run down, haggard and thin looking and felt weak and nervous all the time. I wasn't myself at all and nights I couldn't sleep I was some days and my appetite wasn't so restless. I could hardly drag around, very good. I picked up the newspaper one night and saw where the local druggist was featuring the latest thing in tonics which they claimed was some stronger than old fashioned kinds so I went down to the store and got a bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod and let me tell you this: It does do what they say for I feel like a different person.

"My work seems easy and I have so much more appetite, energy and strength and my nerves are so steady I am going to get a bottle for my husband and knock out a cold he has now and build him up too," declared Mrs. John McDonald, 1265 Essex Avenue, Dayton, O.

Many a woman could add a few pounds, bring out the roses in her pallid cheeks and bring the old sparkle to her eye by simply enriching her blood a little bit and restoring her digestion with a dose of Earle's Hypo-Cod, just before meals for a few days. Just read the formula on the bottle and you will see that all ingredients used are ideal and the name of the nationally known Earle Chemical Co., assures you of quality and full strength. Try a bottle today.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by Sohn's Drug Store (opposite court house) and the leading druggists in all nearby towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax.

St. Paul, Neb.—"I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. WILL THOMAS, St. Paul, Neb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who now are free from suffering by its use.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY
 Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of Influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

NORMAL SCHOOLS INCREASE NUMBER OF PUPILS SOON

Normal schools and Ohio will have more students next year and the following year, as a result of teachers recruiting week, which was held last week, according to F. B. Pearson, state superintendent of public instruction.

Individuals and organizations were busy during the week stirring up sentiment for more and better teachers, and good results are certain, according to Mr. Pearson.

"The larger salaries coming to teachers will be constant, while wages will be variable," said Mr. Pearson. "and when production has overtaken consumption, wages will decline, while salaries will remain for the most part as they are. Hence the young people who begin preparing for teaching now will reap the advantages of this situation when it develops."

HAYES HAMILTON TO SHOW NEW PICTURES TAKEN IN THE WEST

Fifty scenes of San Diego, Cal., and the new San Diego & Arizona railway, in natural colors, will be included in the Hamilton Travelogues by R. Hayes Hamilton of this city, for exhibition purposes in the east, according to the San Diego Union, a copy of which has been received here.

Mr. Hamilton, who has been in California for some time, has been busy making up a new travelogue lecture to be added to his repertoire, which he has exhibited in every important city in the United States. The pictures of San Diego were furnished by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, and the San Diego & Arizona railway has furnished the picture of that road, all of which are colored naturally, and will be shown by Mr. Hamilton in conjunction with his lectures.

The railway views will begin with Yuma, the road terminus, and continue through to San Diego. The views of the harbor, the business district, Balboa park, Mission San Diego de Alcala, and other interesting spots about the city will be shown on the screen. Mr. Hamilton will use the slides on his spring tour and will give the lecture according to the Union, in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Newport, News, Va., New York City, Springfield, O., Dayton, Xenia, Lake Park, N. Y., Brooklyn, N. Y., Anacosta, Mont., Richmond, Va., Brookland, D. C., Great Falls, Mont., Helena, Mont., and many other cities.

Mr. Hamilton recently closed a series of lectures in San Diego at St. John's church hall. He lectured while there at the Hotel del Coronado, the Bishop's school at La Jolla, the Woman's Club at La Jolla, the Community House at La Jolla, the Lady of Angels school and the Knights of Columbus Club.

COUGHED SO HARD HE WAS READY TO DIE

But he recovered quickly and gained 9 pounds in 5 weeks.

"Last December I caught a heavy cold, which left me with a deep-seated cough. I coughed so hard it would start the blood. I thought I was a goner, until I tried Milks Emulsion. I used 9 bottles altogether. My cough is gone, and I have gained nine pounds in five weeks. If anyone doubts it, let them write me."

—Chas. L. Walters, 147 So. 18th St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

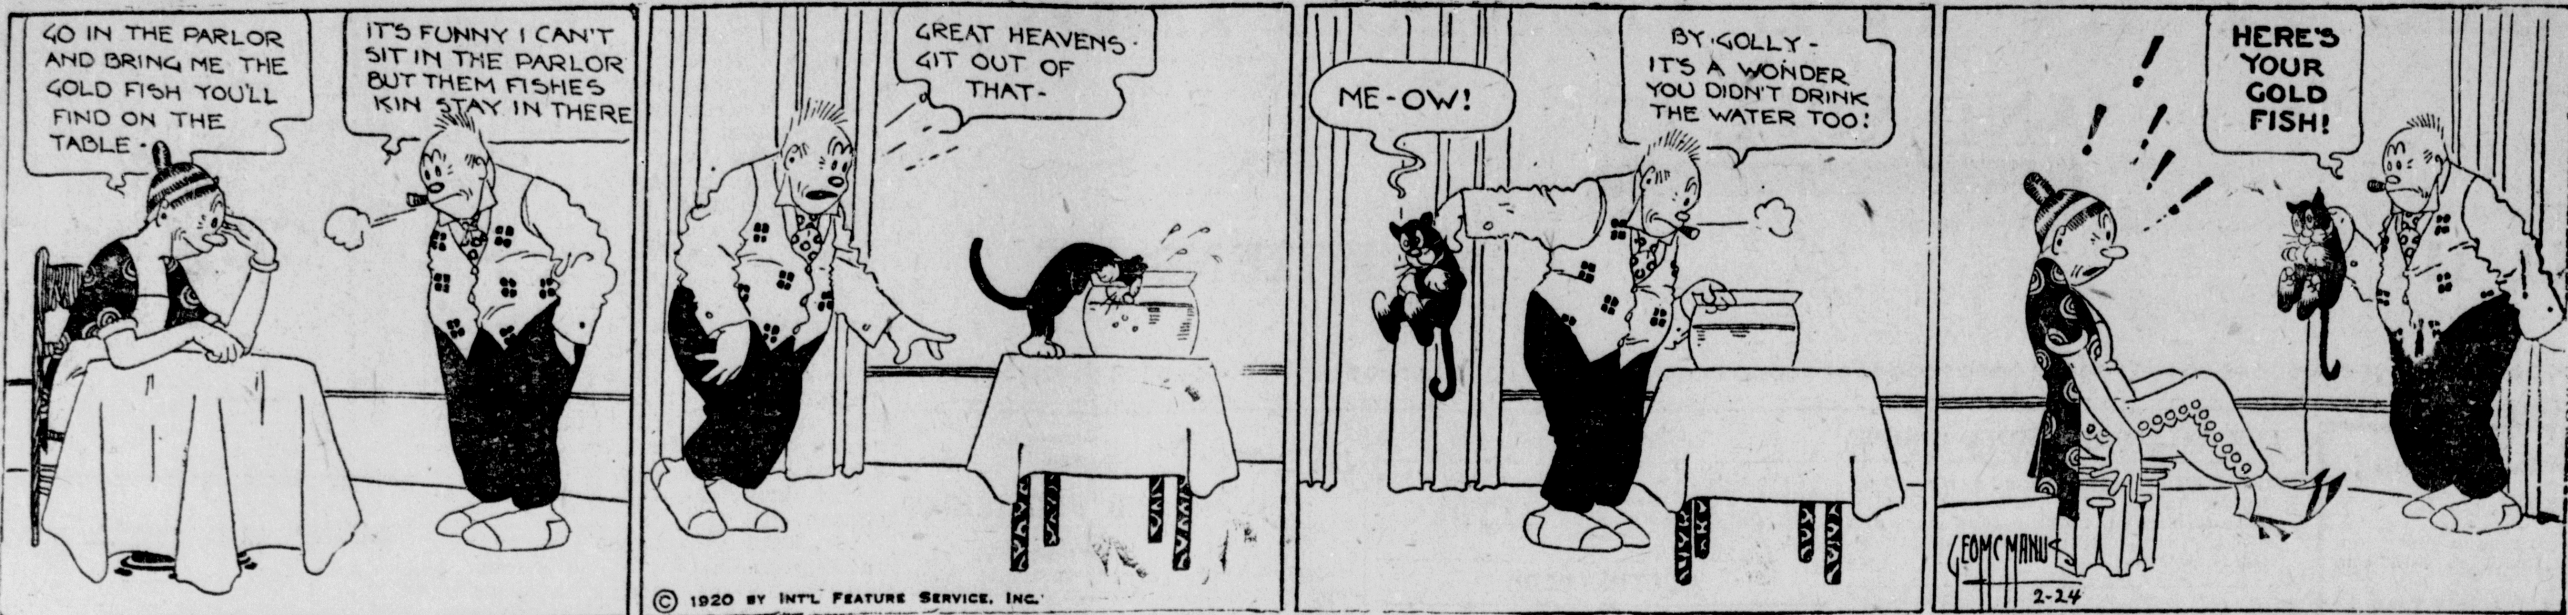

When hundreds upon hundreds of people tell you of just such recovery, just such gains in weight, it must be worth your trying, at least. A trial costs nothing.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

TESTED RECIPES

Chile Con Carne—Have the butcher cut one and one-quarter pounds of shin beef into two-inch blocks. Wipe with a damp cloth and then roll in flour. Now place in a saucepan six tablespoons of fat and when hot add the meat. Brown quickly and add four tablespoons of flour and brown the flour. Now add one quart of water and four onions, minced fine. Cover closely and cook until tender, and then add one can of kidney beans, one cup of stewed tomatoes rubbed through a sieve, one teaspoon of chile powder, one and one-half teaspoons of salt and one teaspoon of paprika.

Serve in a border of mashed potatoes.
Rye Muffins—Place in a mixing bowl one and one-half cups of rye flour, one cup of white flour, one-half cup of bran, one-half cup of molasses, one and one-half cups of sour milk, one teaspoon of salt, four tablespoons of shortening and two level tablespoons of baking powder.

Fluffy Ruffles Fritters—Place in a mixing bowl one and one-quarter cups of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, one-half teaspoon of salt, four tablespoons of short-ning, two tablespoons of syrup and two-thirds cup of milk.

Beat to mix and then dip halves of the stewed dried peaches in this batter and fry until golden brown. Serve with the juice from the stewed fruit.

JUST SUGGESTIONS

Care of Broom—Put a new broom in boiling water up to where it is sewed, for a few minutes. Will make the corners soft, will wear better and keeps it from breaking.

To Dry a Sweater (especially in bad weather)—After washing in warm water dry over a low willow rocking chair. Rock the chair in front of grate, or heater. Shape as nearly as possible with fronts over the arms of chair. The shaking while drying is done by the rocking chair; willow is the best for drying, because of the openness of the chair.

To Make Soap—Lamb fat is excellent for soap. Get a can of lye and follow the directions on the can carefully. Add two teaspoons of borax and one-quarter cup of household ammonia and have fine soap for general use.

To Remove Spots of Indelible Black Ink or Tar—Simply apply grease to affected parts, let lie a short time, then wash in usual way. This will also remove all such stains from hands.

Home-Made Talcum—Take one part boracic acid and three parts corn starch and a few drops of your favorite toilet water or perfume, and sift several times. Then put it in cans.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

BY JANE PHELPS

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

GERRY BEGINS TO WONDER

CHAPTER 60

Robert took the position with Burch and Company, a small sporting goods house, but where—after talking it over with him—I imagined he might have a better chance to advance than in a larger place.

I could not get him at all enthused however, and in a way it discouraged me. I had made up my mind by this time that Robert never would be a success financially. Added to my love for him had come a feeling similar, I imagined, to that a mother has for a child who is either mentally or physically deficient. I felt like mothering him, as if he were a child dependent upon me.

This feeling induced another—that I must treat him as a child, and not take what he did too seriously. I found myself thinking this whenever Marion Hovey came into my mind. I loved Robert completely. He had been the one man in my life. I was sure he loved me, that he had been playing around with Marion Hovey because he was depressed, ashamed because he had not made good, and that he went there because he could forget. Marion was a silly little thing, knew nothing beyond house-keeping and cooking. She would be the kind to drive all thoughts of his inferiority away, and so he would of course enjoy being with her.

Yet even as I thought all this, a wave of jealousy swept over me. While I was working hard to get along, he often had given her the time I felt belonged to me. But I would not allow myself to play the role of neglected wife—hardly even in my thoughts; yet I often wondered just WHY I could not make Robert happy, WHY he was not contented to remain at home with me as he had been when we were first married.

I had not changed—so I thought. Later I learned that my manner had become tinged with my own importance—to put it crudely—and that unconsciously I made Robert feel it. "Well, how about it?" Mary asked. "About what?"

"Robert? Shall I speak to the boss?"

"No. He has a position with Burch and Company. Anyway he told me he wouldn't work for Mr. Leets."

Mary made no remark, simply raised her eyebrows, a way she had when she disapproved of anyone or anything. Then:

"It's rather a dinky firm, but perhaps he'll have as good a chance as with a larger house." She always tried to think of something encouraging.

"That's what I told him."

"We must all help brace him up. He's had hard luck almost ever since you were married—anyway after the first six months. It is discouraging. Would be for anybody. And then it is hard to change places so often, and bosses—especially the bosses I know. Didn't I have a new one every little while until Ma came and found out I was a little treasure? You don't know anything about it, how it makes one feel, because you've never worked anywhere but just here."

I was anxious for the day to end, anxious to talk with Robert. The salary was pitifully small for a man of his age, and I was afraid he would be discouraged because of it, that he would not try to do his best. I was desperately anxious he should succeed in this position; not because of the pay, but for his own sake. I was slowly losing him, or rather, his confidence. It hurt me, and I laid it to his disappointment in not being able to care for me as he wanted to.

He was fond of going too. When we were first married we often went to the theater and concerts. But of late we had gone nowhere together. If he went at all it was with Marion Hovey. And I had been left at home, until in desperation at my lonely evenings I had accepted Gardner Kenyon's invitations, and gone out several times with him.

Robert never seemed to mind, and it was lonely sitting alone all the evening after working hard all day. Had I known that he didn't object to anything I did because he felt he couldn't when I was the earner of the family, I should not have gone quite so eagerly, or—so often.

NORMAL SCHOOLS INCREASE NUMBER OF PUPILS SOON

Normal schools and Ohio will have more students next year and the following year, as a result of teachers recruiting week, which was held last week, according to F. B. Pearson, state superintendent of public instruction.

Individuals and organizations were busy during the week stirring up sentiment for more and better teachers, and good results are certain, according to Mr. Pearson.

"The larger salaries coming to teachers will be constant, while wages will be variable," said Mr. Pearson. "and when production has overtaken consumption, wages will decline, while salaries will remain for the most part as they are. Hence the young people who begin preparing for teaching now will reap the advantages of this situation when it develops."

HAYES HAMILTON TO SHOW NEW PICTURES TAKEN IN THE WEST

Fifty scenes of San Diego, Cal., and the new San Diego & Arizona railway, in natural colors, will be included in the Hamilton Travelogues by R. Hayes Hamilton of this city, for exhibition purposes in the east, according to the San Diego Union, a copy of which has been received here.

Mr. Hamilton, who has been in California for some time, has been busy making up a new travelogue lecture to be added to his repertoire, which he has exhibited in every important city in the United States. The pictures of San Diego were furnished by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, and the San Diego & Arizona railway has furnished the picture of that road, all of which are colored naturally, and will be shown by Mr. Hamilton in conjunction with his lectures.

The railway views will begin with Yuma, the road terminus, and continue through to San Diego. The views of the harbor, the business district, Balboa park, Mission San Diego de Alcala, and other interesting spots about the city will be thrown on the screen. Mr. Hamilton will use the slides on his spring tour and will give the lecture according to the Union, in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Newport, News, Va., New York City, Springfield, O., Dayton, Xenia, Lake Placid, N. Y., Brooklyn, N. Y., Anacostia, Mont., Richmond, Va., Brookland, D. C., Great Falls, Mont., Helena, Mont., and many other cities.

Mr. Hamilton recently closed a series of lectures in San Diego at St. John's church hall. He lectured while there at the Hotel del Coronado, the Bishop's school at La Jolla, the Woman's Club at La Jolla, the Community House at La Jolla, the Lady of Angels school and the Knights of Columbus Club.

COUGHED SO HARD HE WAS READY TO DIE

But he recovered quickly and gained 9 pounds in 5 weeks.

"Last December I caught a heavy cold, which left me with a deep-seated cough. I coughed so hard it would start the blood. I thought I was a goner, until I tried Milk Emulsion. I used 9 bottles altogether. My cough is gone, and I have gained nine pounds in five weeks. If anyone doubts it, let them write me."

—Chas. L. Walters, 147 So. 18th St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

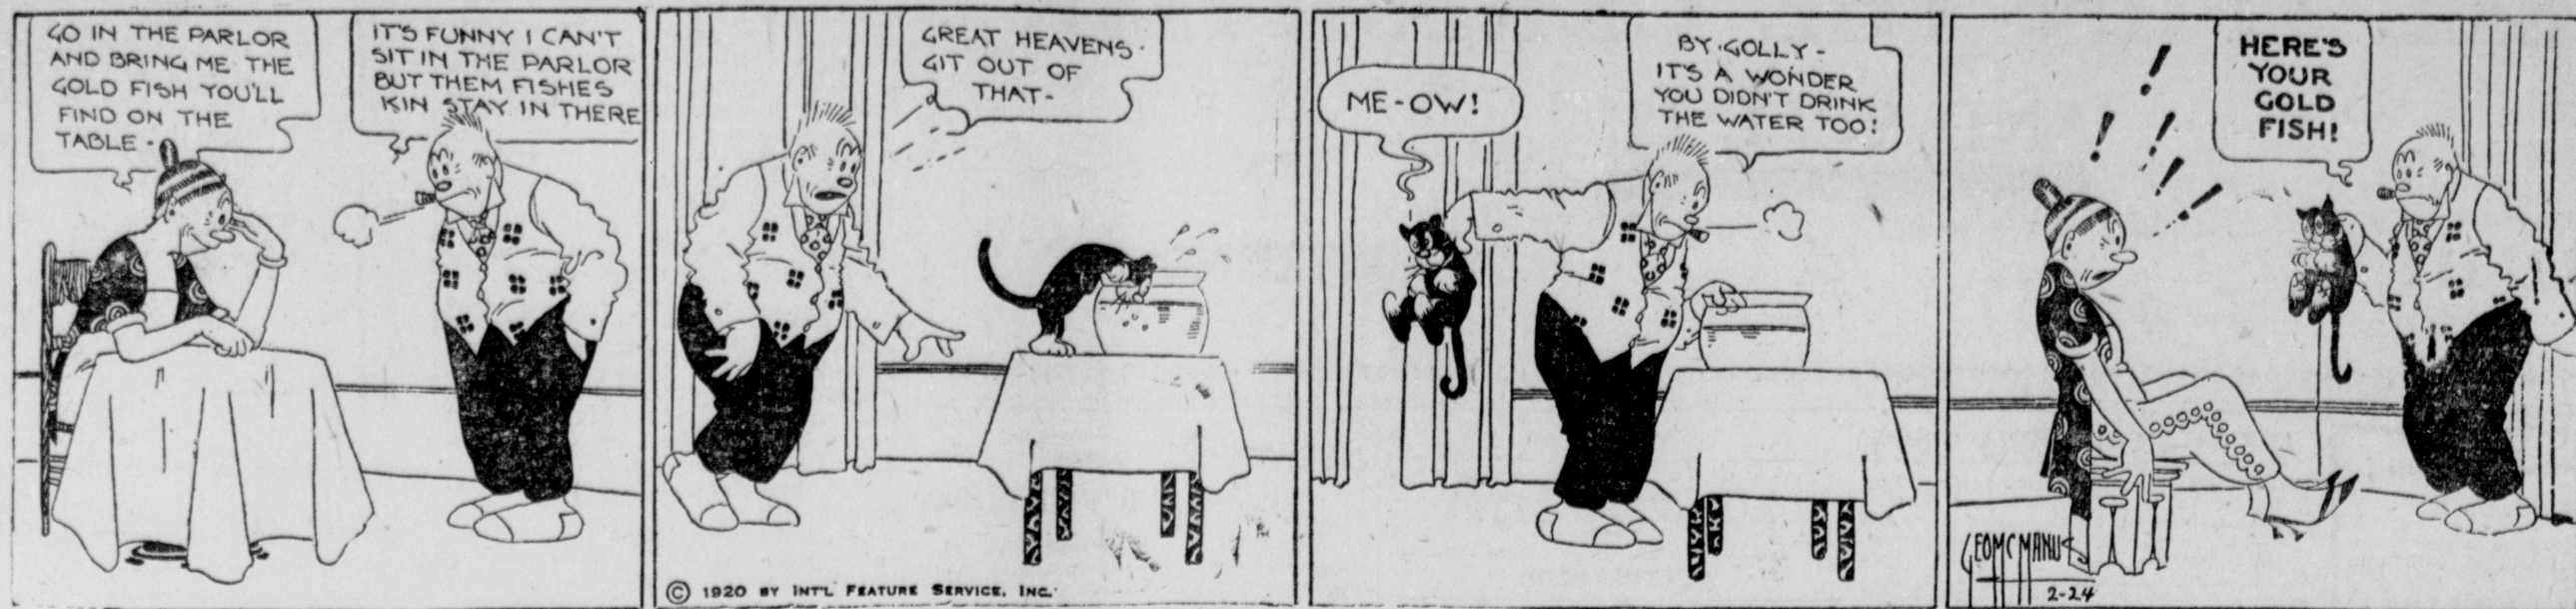

When hundreds upon hundreds of people tell you of just such recovery, just such gains in weight, it must be worth your trying, at least. A trial costs nothing.

Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

TESTED RECIPES

Chile Con Carne

Have the butcher cut one and one-quarter

pounds of shin beef into two-inch blocks. Wipe with a damp cloth and then roll in flour. Now place in a saucepan six tablespoons of fat and quickly add four tablespoons of flour and brown the flour. Now add one quart of water and four onions, minced fine. Cover closely and cook until tender, and then add one can of kidney beans, one cup of stewed tomatoes rubbed through a sieve, one teaspoon of chile powder, one and one-half teaspoons of salt and one teaspoon of paprika.

Serve in a border of mashed potatoes.

Rye Muffins—Place in a mixing bowl one and one-half cups of rye

flour, one cup of white flour, one-half cup of bran, one-half cup of molasses, one and one-half cups of sour milk, one teaspoon of salt, four tablespoons of shortening and two level teaspoons of baking powder.

Beat to mix and then turn into well-greased muffin pans and bake in a hot oven for twenty minutes.

Fluffy Ruffles Fritters—Place in a mixing bowl one and one-quarter cups of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, one-half teaspoon of salt, four tablespoons of shortening, two tablespoons of syrup and two-thirds cup of milk.

Beat to mix and then dip halves of the stewed dried peaches in this batter and fry until golden brown. Serve with the juice from the stewed fruit.

JUST SUGGESTIONS

Care of Broom—Put a new broom in boiling water up to where it is sewed, for a few minutes. Will make the corners soft, will wear better and keeps it from breaking.

To Dry a Sweater (especially in bad weather)—After washing in warm water dry over a low willow rocking chair. Rock the chair in front of grate, or heater. Shape as nearly as possible with fronts over the arms of chair. The shaking while drying is done by the rocking chair; willow is the best for drying, because of the openness of the chair.

To Make Soap—Lamb fat is excellent for soap. Get a can of lye and follow the directions on the can carefully. Add two teaspoons of borax and one-quarter cup of household ammonia and have fine soap for general use.

To Remove Spots of Indelible, Black Ink or Tar—Simply apply grease to affected parts, let lie a short time, then wash in usual way. This will also remove all such stains from hands.

Home-Made Talcum—Take one part boracic acid and three parts corn starch and a few drops of your favorite toilet water or perfume, and sift several times. Then put it in cans.

CATARRH For head or throat Catarrh try the vapor treatment.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

BY JANE PHELPS

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

GERRY BEGINS TO WONDER

CHAPTER 60

Robert took the position with Burch and Company, a small sporting goods house, but where—after talking it over with him—I imagined he might have a better chance to advance than in a larger place.

I could not get him at all enthused however, and in a way it discouraged me. I had made up my mind by this time that Robert never would be a success financially. Added to my love for him had come a feeling similar, I imagined, to that a mother has for a child who is either mentally or physically deficient. I felt like mothering him, as if he were a child dependent upon me.

This feeling induced another—that I must treat him as a child, and not take what he did too seriously. I found myself thinking this whenever Robert came into my mind. I loved Robert completely. He had been the one man in my life. I was sure he loved me, that he had been playing around with Marion Hovey because he was depressed, ashamed because he had not made good, and that he went there because he could forget. Marion was a silly little thing, knew nothing beyond house-keeping and cooking. She would be the kind to drive all thoughts of his inferiority away, and so he would of course enjoy being with her.

Yet even as I thought all this, a wave of jealousy swept over me. While I was working hard to get along, he often had given her the time I felt belonged to me. But I would not allow myself to play the role of neglected wife—hardly even in my thoughts; yet I often wondered just WHY I could not make Robert happy, WHY he was not contented to remain at home with me as he had been when we were first married.

I had not changed—so I thought. Later I learned that my manner had become tinged with my own importance—to put it crudely—and that unconsciously I made Robert feel it. "Well, how about it?" Mary asked. "About what?"

"Robert? Shall I speak to the boss?"

"No. He has a position with Burch and Company. Anyway he told me he wouldn't work for Mr. Leets."

Mary made no remark, simply raised her eyebrows, a way she had when she disapproved of anyone or anything. Then:

"It's rather a dinky firm, but perhaps he'll have as good a chance as with a larger house." She always tried to think of something encouraging.

"That's what I told him."

"We must all help brace him up. He's had hard luck almost ever since you were married—anyway after the first six months. It is discouraging. Would be for anybody. And then it is hard to change places so often, and bosses—especially the bosses I know. Didn't I have a new one every little while until Ma came and found out I was a little treasure? You don't know anything about it, how it makes one feel, because you've never worked anywhere but just here."

I was anxious for the day to end, anxious to talk with Robert. The salary was pitifully small for a man of his age, and I was afraid he would be discouraged because of it, that he would not try to do his best. I was desperately anxious he should succeed in this position; not because of the pay, but for his own sake. I was slowly losing him, or rather, his confidence. It hurt me, and I laid it to his disappointment in not being able to care for me as he wanted to.

He was fond of going too. When we were first married we often went to the theater and concerts. But of late we had gone nowhere together. If he went at all it was with Marion Hovey. And I had been left at home, until in desperation at my lonely evenings I had accepted Gardner Kenyon's invitations, and gone out several times with him.

Robert never seemed to mind, and it was lonely sitting alone all the evening after working hard all day. Had I known that he didn't object to anything I did because he felt he couldn't when I was the earner of the family, I should not have gone quite so eagerly, or—so often.
